What Might Have Been

Children love to watch the calendar. Eager anticipation of special events keeps them excited through much of the year. Our youngest grandson recently celebrated 4 ½ years. If only we had known about those ½ year celebrations when we were growing up!

Soon our calendars are filled with activities of all sorts. So many things find their way into our calendars that we become slaves to our schedules. Important things get postponed or overlooked altogether. When this becomes our way of life, kingdom responsibilities are forgotten, and we become less focused on spiritual matters (cf. Mt. 6:33).

If recent events cause us to slow-down, re-think, and re-evaluate our spiritual priorities, then we will have received the blessing God has promised in trial. Continuing in the path of re-discovery will be the key to our spiritual success (Heb. 10:36).

In humble and steadfast devotion, Solomon served the Lord with his whole heart. His success is well-chronicled in the pages of God's word (1 Kgs. 10:7). But, when Solomon grew old, "his wives turned his heart away after other gods; and his heart was not wholly devoted to the Lord his God, as the heart of David his father had been" (1 Kgs. 11:4). In spite of his age and many years of faithfulness, the anger of the Lord burned against Solomon and He tore the kingdom out of his hands, though in the days of his son, Rehoboam (1 Kgs. 11:9-12).

Unrealized potential, wasted opportunity, and careless neglect are a few things we associate with failure. Showing up is not the same thing as faithfulness. Fielding a team is not the same thing as winning the game. And, growing old does not guarantee ultimate victory.

Years are "golden" only as we persevere in the faith and set our heart on the spiritual treasures Christ has in store for us in the next life. Like a palm tree, David says the righteous will flourish in the house of the Lord. They "will still yield fruit in old age" and declare the uprightness of the Lord (Psa. 92:12-15). We cannot know what the future holds; but, regardless of age, we can use today to grow closer to God, more active in His service, and more beneficial to His cause.

Prayer List

Icey Huddleston is now at home and doing better. Juvean Snell's surgery went well. A permanent hip was installed, and everything looks good so far. She will be moved to rehab at the hospital for 3 weeks as soon as possible (maybe 3 to 4 more days). Eddie Baker had surgery on May 27th at Medical City in Plano to replace his knee and repair torn ligaments. The doctor is pleased with his surgery. He will be in the hospital for 3-4 days. He will have a long recovery ahead of him but Eddie has a positive attitude. Tommy Blackburn received a diagnosis of arthritis of the lungs. He was told he does not have lupus. He returns for more test on June 4th. Ann Butler is having severe back pain. The doctors have determined that her pain is caused from a compressed disk. They are first injecting pain relief and if this does not work, they will do surgery to replace the compressed disk. Casey Jones is not doing well. Please pray for Casey and Dorothy. He is having a lot of pain in his knee and hip.
