¹⁸Then Jesus came to them and said, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. ¹⁹Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, ²⁰and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely, I am with you always, to the very end of the age."

Leaders Are Among Us!

Leadership may very well be one of the most important qualities needed by God's people at the present time. Without it we are hopelessly searching for direction with no one to show us the way. The church needs men and women who are not afraid to call Jesus their Savior by the way they live and the words they speak. Strong leaders who will lead in humility. Leaders who have hearts as big as the sky and who will love their fellow brethren through thick and thin. Leaders who show compassion to the weak and hurting and at the same time show strength and stamina among the arrogant and selfish. We need leaders who will step up and show what it means to have a fire for evangelism. The church's mission is to go into the world and make disciples of all nations. We need leaders who will lead by doing. Andy Stanley, in a book entitled, Visioneering, said, "How is never a problem for God. It is usually a big problem for us. But how is God's specialty. If the Old and New Testament teach us anything, they teach us that nothing is too difficult for God." Oh, how the church needs to raise up leaders who believe this great statement. There is nothing that God wants done that can't be done if we as his people will trust him to carry us through.

When I think of all our young people and their abilities, I know that they have the qualities that God is looking for in a leader. We have several Moses among our young people. We have some Abrahams, Esthers, Sarahs, Rahabs, Davids, and Pauls among them too. All of our ministries that focus on our youth must be designed to help them develop these leadership qualities so that they can lead the church and the world to a Savior who died for them and wants to take them to heaven.

Let's rally around our young people and continue to encourage them. Also, I want to thank all those who are involved with our youth. The elders are actively pursuing possibilities for a Youth and Family ministered who will greatly facilitate the work needed among our youth and their families. I am excited about the possibilities that exist among our youth. All of you who volunteer your time to help our youth, well, you are the greatest and all your time and sacrifice will pay off in the kingdom of God. You are preparing leaders who will magnify the Lord's name in the coming years. May all the glory go to God, who loved us and saved us through his Son, Jesus.

Last week’s question... With what parable in three phases did Christ picture the slow and orderly growth of the kingdom of God?
First the blade, then the ear, after that the full corn in the ear; Mark 4:28

This week’s question.... What king seized Lot and his goods?
