Christmas Is Special

When I was a child, my mom would comment often about my vivid imagination. Well, this article will take a little imagination. I know it is just November and still several weeks before Christmas, but I want you to imagine it is cold and it is Christmas time. I love Christmas! I always have. Every Christmas Eve is a sleepless night for me because I am so excited about the Christmas day approaching. When I was a child, this excitement was because I wanted to get up and see what Santa had brought me. Now that I am older, it is because I want to see the joy on the faces of my children and grandchildren. Christmas brings people closer together. It seems that at Christmas time the world is a better place to live.

All over the world people celebrate Christmas as the birthday of Jesus. Of course, we do not know what day Jesus was born but it is good that so many think of Jesus during this time. I wish we celebrated his birth every day. I wish we all would bring gifts to him every day; gifts from our hearts. Gifts that say thank you for all you have done for me. Gifts that show we love, honor, and adore him. Gifts that say, I am aware of God all around me in the heavens above as well as the earth beneath. Gifts of joy, laughter, sacrifice, and courage. That is not to say we could ever give God enough gifts to repay him for all he has done for us. God gave the jewel of heaven to the world. “For God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believes in him should not perish but have everlasting life,” (John 3:16). A gift so glorious that words cannot describe it. A gift so huge no one could ever pay for it. A gift so important that no one could surpass it. “Every good and perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of the heavenly lights, who does not change like shifting shadows,” (James 1:17). We learned to give gifts from God.

So, remember, every time you wrap a gift for someone during the Christmas season, let it remind you that God wrapped himself with human flesh and dwelt among us. When you tie the bow on each gift, remember God was tied to a cross, nailed there for the salvation of the world. And each time you write a name on a gift, remember God gave Jesus so that name could be written in the book of life in a place called heaven. Merry Christmas!! Oh, just a reminder, it is November, but Christmas is coming!

- Scott
