<sup>18</sup>Then Jesus came to them and said, “All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. <sup>19</sup>Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, <sup>20</sup>and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely, I am with you always, to the very end of the age.”

The Joy of Giving

How many ways can we say, “I love you?” No matter how many times we might say this, it is not enough. We need to take the time to say the words. I realize that words need to be backed up by actions, but we start by saying them. Our families need to say the words more often. Spouses need to say the words. Parents need to tell their children and children need to tell their parents. There is just not enough love to go around in this world. Love demonstrated by words and actions. This time of the year is so special. Many of us who are quite busy focusing on our careers, getting ahead, fulfilling responsibilities at our jobs, with friends and so on, slow down a little and focus on those that we love. It is a time of gift giving and Jesus said it is more blessed to give than to receive. I remember as a child it was all about what “I” was getting for Christmas but as time passes, I realize that the true joy of Christmas is giving to others. All through the New Testament there are verses that remind us of this truth. Jesus reminded his disciples in Matthew 10:8, “Freely you have received, freely give.” Again, Jesus says, “Give to everyone who begs from you, and from one who takes away your goods do not demand them back” (Luke 6:30). And again, Jesus said, “Give, and it will be given to you. Good measure, pressed down, shaken together, running over, will be put into your lap. For with the measure, you use it will be measured back to you.” The apostle Paul used the giving attitude of the churches in Macedonia to urge the churches in Achaia to have the same kind of giving hearts (2 Corinthians 8:1-24) and in doing so they would be richly blessed. We can never out give God. He is always so generous to us both spiritually and physically. The apostle continues with this encouragement to the church in Corinth concerning their giving hearts, “The point is this: whoever sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and whoever sows bountifully will also reap bountifully. Each one must give as he has decided in his heart, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver. And God is able to make all grace abound to you, so that having all sufficiency in all things at all times, you may abound in every good work. As it is written, “He has distributed freely, he has given to the poor; his righteousness endures forever.” He who supplies seed to the sower and bread for food will supply and multiply your seed for sowing and increase the harvest of your righteousness. You will be enriched in every way to be generous in every way, which through us will produce thanksgiving to God. For the ministry of this service is not only supplying the needs of the saints but is also overflowing in many thanksgivings to God. By their approval of this service, they will glorify God because of your submission that comes from your confession of the gospel of Christ, and the generosity of your contribution for them and for all others, while they long for you and pray for you, because of the surpassing grace of God upon you. Thanks be to God for his inexpressible gift! (2 Corinthians 9:6-15).

Happy Thanksgiving and Merry Christmas! ~Scott Sides
