A Servant’s Prayer

Make me a servant, Lord.

Give me a servant’s eyes,
Able to see the slightest needs of those around me.

Let me have a servant’s ears,
tuned to detect the softest cry of help
from the lowliest person.

Give me a servant’s voice, one which speaks words of comfort and cheer to those in despair.

Give me a servant’s hands,
let them be touch enough for hard.
Work and tender enough to touch a crying child.

Make my back a servant’s back, strong enough to bear both my own and
the burdens of others.

Let me have a servant’s knees,
let them be flexible enough to bend to the lowliest task and to pray.

Give me a servant’s feet,
let them be quick to take me where I can do the greatest good for the weary pilgrim, my lowly brother, and my broken-hearted sister.

And Lord, most of all, give me a servant’s heart,
Because with that, Lord, the rest will come in due time.

Keep in your prayers.

To the Collinsville church of Christ,

You hold a dear place in my heart. I have many wonderful memories sitting on the pews beside my grandparents, aunts, uncles, and Mom. The thing I cherish most is how much of a blessing you were to her, especially over the last couple of years. She bragged about her church family numerous times. I can’t tell you how much she appreciated your sacrificing your time for her. You were the hands and feet of Jesus to her, and it did not go unnoticed. Thank you for blessing my family with a delicious meal and the peace lily. I appreciate you more than this card can convey.

Sincerely,

Beth Livingston & Family
