Dear Church Family,

As another school year begins, our children and grandchildren are preparing to return to classrooms where they will spend countless hours learning, growing, and preparing for their future.

As Christians, this season should also remind us of something even more important. It is time for all of us—children, teens, parents, grandparents, and every member of the congregation—to renew our commitment to studying God's Word together.

Paul encouraged Timothy:

"Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth."

2 Timothy 2:15 (KJV)

Our education, careers, and accomplishments have value, but nothing is more important than knowing God and His will for our lives.

Jesus also reminded His disciples:

"Except ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven."

Matthew 18:3 (KJV)

Children come eager to learn. They ask questions. They trust. They grow. Jesus tells us that same humble, teachable spirit should describe every one of us.

This fall let's make Bible classes a priority—not just for our children, but for ourselves.

Parents, bring your children.

Grandparents, bring your grandchildren.

Kids, invite your friends.

Adults, invite your neighbors, coworkers, and friends who may be searching for truth.

God instructed Israel:

"And these words, which I command thee this day, shall be in thine heart: And thou shalt teach them diligently unto thy children..."

Deuteronomy 6:6-7

The responsibility of teaching the next generation belongs to all of us. Whether you are five years old or ninety-five, there is always more to learn from God's Word.

Our Bible classes provide opportunities to grow in faith, encourage one another, ask questions, and strengthen our relationship with Christ.

As the Hebrew writer reminds us:

"And let us consider one another to provoke unto love and to good works: Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together..."

Hebrews 10:24-25

As we begin this new school year, let's also begin with renewed purpose.

Let's fill every classroom.

Let's strengthen every family.

Let's encourage every soul.

And let's show our community that learning God's Word is not just for children—it is a lifelong pursuit.

We look forward to seeing you this Sunday morning and again on Wednesday evening.

Bring your Bible, bring your family, and bring someone with you.

Together, let's grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.

In Christian love,

James Barnes
