The Apostles' Doctrine

We should never elevate anyone above where God does. Nor should we demote anyone below where God does. Just as we are humans, so were the apostles, as they were not perfect or infallible on their own. We see examples of their imperfection as humans periodically (in Peter's impetuous behavior, in the apostles arguing over greatness, in their forsaking of Jesus in His moment of greatest need, etc.). However, when it came to their doctrine, it was infallible in every way.

The doctrine preached by the apostles was not their own. Peter said that "no prophecy of Scripture is of any private interpretation, for prophecy never came by the will of man" (2 Peter 1:20-21). In fact, Jesus told them, "Do not worry beforehand, or premeditate what you will speak" (Mark 13:11). Truly, the apostles' doctrine was "not...the word of men" (1 Thessalonians 2:13).

The doctrine preached by the apostles was given to them directly from God. Peter affirmed, "holy men of God spoke as they were moved by the Holy Spirit" (2 Peter 1:21). Jesus told the apostles, "But whatever is given you in that hour, speak that; for it is not you who speak, but the Holy Spirit" (Mark 13:11). The Holy Spirit would "teach" the apostles, "bring to [their] remembrance all things" that Jesus told them, "Guide [them] into all truth" and "tell [them] things to come" (John 14:26; 16:13).

The doctrine preached by the apostles carried the very authority of its origin—God Himself. Paul delighted to pronounce the word that he spoke and wrote was "in truth, the word of God" (1 Thessalonians 2:13), for it had "been freely given" to him "by God" (1 Corinthians 2:10-13). Thus, the authority inherent in "the things which I write to you," said Paul to his Corinthian brethren, "are the commandments of the Lord" (1 Corinthians 14:37).

The doctrine preached by the apostles was singular in nature. The definite article "the" is used in Acts 2:42 of "the apostles' doctrine," and it is used repeatedly in the New Testament of "the doctrine" of Christ (1 Timothy 4:16; 6:3; 2 John 9). Truly, there is "one faith" (Ephesians 4:5), which is "the faith which was once for all delivered to the saints" (Jude 3). There is "no other doctrine" (1 Timothy 1:3) given by and acceptable to the God of heaven than the apostles' doctrine.

That is why the doctrine preached by the apostles is that in which we must "continue steadfastly" (Acts 2:42), which we must preach in love (Ephesians 4:15), and for which we must "contend earnestly" (Jude 3). We must not "receive...nor greet" anyone who does "not bring this doctrine" (2 John 9). The apostles were imperfect, but their doctrine is perfect!

¹⁸ Then Jesus came to them and said, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. ¹⁹ Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, ²⁰ and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely, I am with you always, to the very end of the age."

Matthew 28:18-20

Keep in your prayers

Braxten Bounds, Keith & Peggy Durden’s grandson, was in the hospital at Children’s in Dallas. He is back home.
Christi Light has asked for prayers for her brother. Pray that he changes his life for the better and reconnects with his family.
Everetta Holbert has a collection of blood vessels called Cavernous Malformation. It is not cancer. She will be seeing a neurosurgeon on the 19th to see what is next.
Lila Beth Davis is in hospice. Prayers are desperately needed. Phone calls, texts messages, and cards will go a long way.
Arnold Patton, Runez Pruitt’s brother, has started his cancer treatments.
Charles Snell had a procedure on his brain last week to take care of the brain bleed. He is now home recovering.
Larry Bice is not doing too well. He’s still breathing on his own. Its up and down. He’s hanging on. They are trying to keep him as comfortable as they can. Pray for peace and comfort.
Mason Bennett had Gallbladder surgery Monday, July 29th. He is home recovering.
Layton Hunter’s iron levels were a bit low this past week. He has to start another round of Venofer iron infusions.

Those to continue to remember in prayer.

~ Know Your Bible ~

Last week’s question.... What law had the Israelites regarding honesty in trade? The law requiring just weights and measures; Leviticus 19:35, 36.

This week’s question.... Finish the sentence: Where your treasure is:

1 Peter 3:21-22
²¹ and this water symbolizes baptism that now saves you also—not the removal of dirt from the body but the pledge of a clear conscience toward God.[a] It saves you by the resurrection of Jesus Christ, ²² who has gone into heaven and is at God’s right hand—with angels, authorities and powers in submission to him.

August’s Sunday Night Question and Answer Series

These 4 questions are what we will be finding the answers to in our Sunday night sermons this month.
August 4th:
 Why does God allow innocent people to suffer?
August 11th:
 Are the stories in the Bible just stories or are they real?
 We believe in a God but is it our God?
August 18th:
 If God knows everything, do we really have free-will?
August 25th:
 Does God see women inferior to men?
