July & August
2018

A Few Words From Pastor David

I want to begin by extending a deep and heartfelt thanks to all those who made the journey to 751 South St. in Utica on June 24th at 4:00 p.m. for our joint worship service with Hope Chapel A.M.E. Zion church. Admittedly, I am biased, but I think it was a great experience. I would encourage you to ask those who attended for their thoughts. (FYI -I was told the service was recorded and will be posted on Hope Chapel's Facebook page in the near future in case you want to see it.) Thank you Karen Toepp for providing an opening prayer, Linda Lambe for coordinating our choir members, choir members for joining with Hope Chapel's choir, and indeed to everyone who showed up, and/or stayed for dinner, and/or brought food. Most importantly, though, I want to thank you all for taking a risk. It was very brave of you to go to an unfamiliar place, to worship with an unfamiliar group, in an unfamiliar style. You went into the great unknown, and really walked out in faith. Thank you so much for taking such a big risk. I am deeply grateful and very humbled! I truly think we have opened the door and started the process of beginning a relationship with the very good and fine folks at this historic African-American church. As a next step in this process, I have invited Hope Chapel to come and worship with us. The date and time are still to be determined, but it is my sincere hope that if you are available, you will choose to attend. I'm confident you will be richly rewarded by the experience. June 24th was the start of something very good. ☺

A second point I want to raise up is transportation. I am aware of several individuals who need transportation to church on Sun. morning and for other events. Some of our people have been giving rides already (Thank you!!), but we still have need for others to do so. Plus, it would be good if we could have others give our current drivers a break and/or cover for them if they can't drive on a particular Sun. or to a particular event. Be that as it may, there is a sign-up sheet in the Narthex at the church for people who are willing and able to provide transportation and for people who need it. Please consider whether this might be a ministry the Spirit is calling you to perform. (Reminder – there are sign-up sheets in the Narthex for other ways you can fulfill your call to ministry.) If you can't get to church to sign up, please call us and we'd be happy to put your name on the list as either a driver or a rider. Thank you.

Finally, I realize it summertime and many of you take this as an opportunity to get away and to be outdoors. This is good as we all need to refresh ourselves, recharge our batteries, and take in God's wonderful, awe-inspiring world. I wish you well and pray for your safe travels. When you are around, please come to worship as your presence positively affects the worship experience for all of us. If you're not here for worship, stop in some other time. I'd love to see you and visit with you. Also, please try to check in periodically because there will be much activity and planning occurring over the next couple of months, and we want you to be included and/or aware of what is happening. We will try to inform you, but you also need to try to stay informed. As you know, communication is essential, but it is also a two-way street.

Thank you again for the privilege of being your pastor. As I said to the folks at Hope Chapel yesterday, you are a great congregation and I am truly blessed to be your pastor. Have a fantastic summer. Be safe and know that you are in my prayers, wherever you may be.

Your brother in Christ,

Pastor David

"Our love to God is measured by our everyday fellowship with others and the love it displays."

Please see a committee member if you have any questions: Kim & Jim Marscher, Bob & Bonnie Loomis, Wendy Stevens, Laura Hilt, Gloria Cifonelli, Mary Senn, John Aceto, Matt Aceto, Jim Schieble, Diana Inserra, Jeanne Gymburch and Pastor David.

Zion's choir will begin rehearsing the second Sunday in October to sing on the 2nd and 4th Sundays for the 10 AM service.

SAVE THE DATE: Choir Festival on Sunday, October 28 at 3 PM, location TBA.

Vignettes from Zion's History: Congregational Picnics

Picnics were once a regular part of Zion Church's calendar. Usually held in July, these outings gave members an opportunity to escape Utica's oppressive summer heat and experience a day of relaxation, fun, and fellowship in the neighboring, cooler countryside.

Until mass production made automobiles affordable in the 1920s, Zion's flock relied on trolley and railroad transportation to reach their picnic destinations. Utica's Inter-urban Trolley Company capitalized off city dwellers' desire to break away from their sweltering summer routines. The company built Summit Park in Oriskany on their trolley line's western end and Utica Park, at the site of the old Chicago Pneumatic factory in Frankfort, at the eastern terminus. Both parks, with carnival rides, picnic grounds, and plenty of shade, attracted crowds. The company's New York Mills line connected with that village's parks, and a South Utica branch led to Casino Park, off Oneida Street, another popular destination.

Zion held picnics at all of these locations, and at others. The earliest recorded congregational picnics occurred in 1873 and 1875 at French's Grove, a facility near the site of today's Chanatry's Supermarket. In 1876, Zion's members patronized Palmer's Grove, Frankfort. Our people frequented Utica Park in 1896, Wilson's Grove in New York Mills in 1904 and 1910, and Forest Park in 1920, all of which were near the trolley lines. Utica's trolley company added cars on each of these days to accommodate 500+ Zionites.

Railroads also provided transportation to picnic destinations. In 1880, Zion's Young Men's Society started a tradition of summer outings at the Lake House on Canadarago Lake, Richfield Springs. These picnics, which were celebrant, "wet" affairs, lasted through 1920. The Young Men even brought their own music. A Utica paper noted, in June 1902: "The excursionists returned at nine o'clock in the evening and, headed by Schremp's band, marched up Genesee Street and over Columbia to the School Hall." The Delaware, Lackawanna, and Western Railroad (D.L.&W.) ran daily passenger trains from Utica's Union Station to Richfield. In July 1892, the Young Men's Society filled eight cars for their picnic.

Trenton Falls, north of Utica, was a very popular 19th century tourist attraction and Madison Lake, near that Madison County village, boasted a small resort in the early 20th century. Zion's Sunday school teachers used trains to reach both communities. A paper reported that, at Madison Lake, on July 31, 1903: "Dancing was enjoyed by Zion's faculty and the Germania Orchestra furnished the music. Boating, fishing, and other sports were also indulged in. Prior to leaving, the teachers sang a favorite Sunday school hymn, accompanied by the orchestra."

Zion's picnics were superbly organized events, with numerous committees assigned to details. At the 1920 outing, for example, the Frauenverein (Ladies Aid) cooked dinner and supper. Over 100 members volunteered for committees that took responsibility for music, ice cream, soft drinks and candy, policing the picnic grounds, games and prizes, and transportation. This meticulous organizing often led to tidy profits. The 1879 picnic netted $118 ($3,168 in 2017 dollars), while the 1904 event earned $150 ($4153 today).

Vignettes from Zion's History: Congregational Picnics

Some Zion picnics began with impressive ceremonies. A Utica paper described the 1896 excursion: "The societies of Zion's German Lutheran Church formed a procession, headed by Marshal George Steinbecker, and marched up Columbia Street to Varick, over Varick to Court, out Court to Saratoga, and over Saratoga to Columbia, thence to Bleecker Street, where they boarded trolley cars for the Utica Park. In the line of march were the Sunday school, Young People's Society, Young Ladies' Society, Young Men's Society, and the women's organizations of the church. The Old Utica Band furnished music for marching, and at the park. A large number of people sought the coolness of the park this afternoon and witnessed the athletic events and other unique contests."

Autos and buses had replaced railroad and trolley transportation by the late 1930s. In response, Pastor Nolte organized car pools at picnic times. In another change, Trenton Assembly Park became a regular picnic site after 1938. This park, located on Route 28 in Barneveld, was started in the 1860s as the "Trenton Falls Camp Meeting Association" and was affiliated with the Methodist Church. A "tabernacle" on park grounds was used for revivals. When the name was changed to Trenton Assembly Park in 1911, the Methodists built a dormitory and dining hall to augment their facility. Chautauqua-like summer sessions were held during the 1930s and 1940s.

As time passed, the park's religious purpose faded and properties were sold to non-Methodists. Pastor John and Marie Sprock, and Zion members Earl and Teddi Pierson, for example, owned camps there. For a nominal fee, our church rented the park, which was ideal for picnics. Memories of these events endure. Carl Schmitt recalled participating in softball contests and three-legged sack races, among other games. Fran and Claudia King remembered the delicious covered dish supper, preceded by devotions that brought the crowd together in late afternoon. And Gene and Linda White laughed as they recalled how every year, in the spirit of Zion's Young Men of old, a number of male members left the picnic for an hour in mid-afternoon to investigate the "refreshments" offered by the Mapledale Hotel in Barneveld.

Picnics have occasionally been held since 1970. Pr. Paul Joslyn, Parish Coordinator Helga Morrison, and their sesquicentennial committee organized an event in 1992.

Anne McCarthy chaired the picnic committee for our 175th anniversary celebration last year, when our congregation gathered at the Kirkland Town Park.

Boilermaker at Zion

THE BOILERMAKER

The nationally famous Boilermaker Run is on July 8th. We will have our Hospitality Tent in front of the church on Burrstone road and offer our parking lot for people to park in in return for canned goods & donations. This means that we need volunteers to help pull this off!

- ⇒ We need a couple of people before the event itself, and several more the morning of the event to help set up and staff our Hospitality Tent (shifts from 6:00 a.m. through to the end of the race approximately 10:30 a.m.).
- ⇒ We also need people to volunteer to provide baked goods and beverages, such as water, Gatorade, and Powerade.
- ⇒ If you can't come by to sign up, please call the church, let us know what you want to do, and we'll sign you up!

There is a sign up sheet in the narthex at the church for Volunteer help and donations. This is a BIG event for us as well as the Utica running community and its supporters have come to look forward to our hospitality, so please seriously consider helping out in some way. Thank you!

Zion's Men's Group - New Leadership Proposal

2018

Fran King has been coordinating Zion's men's group for years and has enjoyed meeting on the first Saturday of every month at "Breakfast at Tiffany's".

Fran would like to give the pleasure to the next gentleman who would be interested in coordinating men's group. What an honor.

Having a small group creates momentum, they are encouraging, keeps accountability, prayer, and fellowship.

Some things to considering when leading a small group:

- ♦ Selecting material for discussion and interest
- ♦ Leading an effective discussion
- ♦ Outlining your gathering
- ♦ Consider a book or a reading plan
- ♦ Meeting location
- ♦ Agreeing on an appealing meeting time

There are a host of topics to cover when leading your group. Here are some ideas of topics of interest:

What is a healthy relationship? Mid-Life issues. Being positive. Assertiveness. Listening more effectively. Retirement. Managing to disagree. Investing wisely. How to pray. Anxiety. Do we have any hikers, shall we hike? Leading our household. How can I serve in my community? Stress management. How can I make a difference?

Do you have what it takes to be Zion's new men's group Leader & Coordinator?

Please contact Fran or Pastor David if you are interested.

\ Zion will help support your group and can provide websites to further your group's plan. You can choose to meet weekly, or monthly. **

Sideline Poem

Bobby Bare Lyrics
"dropkick Me Jesus"

Dropkick me, Jesus, through the goal posts of life
End over end, neither left nor to right
Straight through the heart of them, righteous up rights
Dropkick me, Jesus, through the goal posts of life

Make me, oh, make me, Lord, more than I am
Make me a piece in Your master game plan
Free from the earthly tem pesion below
I've got the will, Lord, if you got the toe

Dropkick me, Jesus through the goal posts of life
End over end, neither left nor to right
Straight through the heart of them, righteous up rights
Dropkick me, Jesus, through the goal posts of life

Bring on the brothers who've gone on before
And all of the sisters who've knocked on your door
All the departed, dear, loved ones of mine
Stick 'em up front in the offensive line

Dropkick me, Jesus, through the goal posts of life
End over end, neither left nor to right
Straight through the heart of them, righteous up rights
Dropkick me, Jesus, through the goal posts of life

Dropkick me, Jesus, through the goal posts of life
End over end, neither left nor to right
Straight through the heart of them, righteous up rights
Dropkick me, Jesus, through the goal posts of life

Yeah, dropkick me, Jesus, through the goal posts of life
End over end, neither left nor to right

Summer recycling! Please continue to bring your cans/bottles with you to Church on Sundays or to Bible Study on Wednesdays, it supports the Utica Food Pantries.

There are bins in the coat room downstairs.

Ed Grove returns these for us!

Thank You for all you do for Zion!

DONATION SCALE

Donations of Paper Products,

EQUAL EXCHANGE ORGANIC COFFEE & MORE

Equal Exchange proudly offers special blends of coffee to honor women coffee producers as well as sisters who advocate for social justice in their congregations and communities.

It's cheaper than Starbucks, tastier than DD, but most of all it supports a cause close to our hearts so don't be afraid to try something new. "Since we have such a hope, we are very bold." Be Bold!

Notes from Zion

ATTENTION EVERYONE

In the past few years, Zion has made some major improvements to our building. Zion's Steeple Project is a great example of this. At that time, we reached out to Zion's members with a challenge to contribute enough money to cover the cost of refurbishing Zion's steeple, and through our combined efforts, we met this challenge and we were able to repay ourselves. We have all enjoyed our beautifully lit steeple and our new carillon!

We have recently made more improvements to Zion, and we now have a beautifully renovated Fireside Room and newly upgraded upstairs bathrooms, which you have all seen and enjoyed. These improvements were paid for by loaning ourselves money from our savings. Now, we are reaching out to Zion's members to help us repay ourselves for these capital improvement expenses. Pastor David and Zion's Council are requesting your assistance in doing this. By making a contribution to Zion's Building Fund, you can help us pay back Zion's savings so that we will be able to continue to make improvements to our church building. This can be done by using the green envelopes in the pews or by sending your contribution to the church and marking it "Building Fund." If you have any questions about this wonderful opportunity to give back to your church, please feel free to ask the council members or Pastor David. Thank you in advance for your generosity and God Bless of all you!

Thank you to all of the ladies who come in and water our plants and do our gardening for Zion. Everything looks beautiful and we appreciate you.

Thank You Letters

From the Pen of Mae Parker

I asked my Lord
Why must I suffer so
No answer came to me that day
And I was very low

The next time that I prayed
This time it was with tears
Oh, Lord why must I suffer so
This pain and hopelessness for years

A voice within my soul spoke out
I will tell you this is true
The Lord said "when you're weakest child
My strength can get to you"

And so my friend take heart
Your world will be brand new
Your pain and suffering will cease
When Christ comes down for you

Dear Your Neighbors (Carole)
and Zion Church,

Thank you for providing meals to me
after weeks of being in the hospital,
followed by a nursing home stay.

I really appreciated it, it was very helpful.

It is a wonderful service that you provide to the community, and housing all of the meals seems like a lot of work.

Sincerely,

Roger P.

Dear Kim, Pastor David,
and the Zion Community,

On behalf of The Paris Hill Brass Quintet,
we would like to thank you for your generosity and welcoming for our May 20th
Recital. We greatly appreciate all you do to promote music making in our community and the growth of our ensemble.

Sincerely,

The Paris Hill Brass Quintet

Dear Pastor David and Zion members,

Thank you for your prayers, cards,
meals and other kindnesses during Kim's recovery. We are grateful to be part of Zion's family.

Love,

Kim & Jim Marscher

Events

Lutheran Marriage Encounter

Attention Married Couples

We would never expect a car to run smoothly forever without a tune-up, so why do we expect our marriage relationship to keep running smoothly without a little maintenance? Treat yourselves to a Lutheran Marriage Encounter Weekend! The fall northeast US Lutheran Marriage Encounter Weekends are:

* September 14-16, 2018 at Spruce Lake Retreat in Canadensis, PA. A great hotel-style facility located in 800 acres of woodlands in the heart of the Pocono Mountains. An hour north of Allentown.

* October 19-21, 2018 at Olmsted Retreat Center. A stunning, hotel-style retreat next to Olmsted Mansion in Allegheny National Forest. 2 hours north of Pittsburgh.

* November 9-11, 2018 at Hampton Inn Berkshires in Lenox, Massachusetts. A lovely hotel beautifully situated on the edge of a 100-acre nature preserve in the heart of the Berkshires. An hour northwest of Springfield, MA.

Two nights lodging, 5 meals for each of you, and all supplies are included with your $100 per couple registration fee, plus toward the end of the weekend you will be given an opportunity to make a confidential contribution of whatever amount you wish to help cover expenses and towards the continuation of the program. Sign up at your earliest convenience by going to the website:

www.GodLovesMarriage.org For questions, or if you would like a brochure mailed to you, contact Northeast US Directors of Lutheran Marriage Encounter, Fred & Julie Schamber, at 724-325-3166 or fjschamber@comcast.net.

Packrat Rummage Sale

Saturday, July 21

St. Stephen Lutheran Church in Syracuse

The STEP Center at Syracuse University and St. Stephen Lutheran Church provide a whole host of vital ministries that help recent refugees make their home in CNY. Now they invite and encourage all the churches of Central Crossroads to lend a hand for the Packrat Rummage Sale to support this work with new Americans.

Volunteers are needed to tag sale items at St. Stephen July 17 through July 20 and to set up. Items are needed for sale as well! Donated items can be dropped off at St. Stephen 9:30 am to 2:30 pm now until July 20th. On the day of the sale, volunteers to work are needed as well as baked goods for the bake sale table. Vendor tables and craft tables are also available for a small fee.

This project needs your help to be a success! Come join the effort and enjoy connecting with those from other churches and meet the participants in the program who will be volunteering as well. If you'd like to help, you may call St. Stephen at 315-479-9912 or Debra Rafte from St. Peter's at 315-264-3589.
