Zion's Oktoberfest	12

Well, we certainly started our 175th anniversary celebrations off with a bang! We had a wonderful music festival on August 19th. The weather was superb, the musicians were outstanding, the crowd support was enthusiastic, the ice cream sundaes were delicious, and the face painting was amazing. Thank you, one and all, for your hard work, long hours of preparation, "day of" involvement, and support. As I said the following day in worship – you gave the community a tremendous gift and were a great vehicle through which God's love, uplifting Spirit, and blessings were experienced. While many people are to be thanked, I'd like to raise up a few for special recognition: John Aceto, John Blackburn, Beth Dubeck, Fran Holzberger, the Hamilton College students, Jennifer Pierce, our Youth Group (including Ellen Smith, and the Blackburns), and Jim and Kim Marscher. If I have forgotten anyone, please forgive me, and again I thank everyone for whatever level of support and participation they were able to give, including praying.

Our celebrations continue on Sunday, September 3rd, when we will have our regular worship service at the town park in Kirkland. The time is 10:00 a.m. as usual, only the location is different. Please see the article inside this newsletter for details. If you have any questions, please call the church or Ann McCarthy, who is spearheading the event. On September 17th at 2:00 p.m. we will rededicate Zion's founding pastor's, Rev. Andrew Wetzel's, gravesite at Forest Hill cemetery. On September 23rd, 9:30 – 11:30 a.m. (gather at 9:00, gone by 12:00) our own Jack Henke will be giving a presentation and leading a discussion on Lutheranism in the Mohawk Valley. This is the third in a four part lecture series with our sister churches (St. Peter's, Verona; Trinity, Herkimer; and Our Saviour, Utica) commemorating the 500th anniversary of the Protestant Reformation. We all know Jack's passion for Zion's history, so you won't want to miss this event! For the end of the month we are trying to arrange for a group from Symphoria in Syracuse to come to Zion and give a concert of Reformation music on September 29th at 7:30 p.m. Please check our Facebook page, website, and weekly bulletin for updates.

One other very significant event is a workshop we are hosting for the entire Utica area on September 16th entitled, What Stands Between Us? The Issue of Race in America and in Our Community led by Patrick Johnson. As Patrick says, "Many people have not been afforded the opportunity to have an honest dialogue about race relations. This is that opportunity... As the Mohawk Valley emerges into a very diverse community, we can no longer afford to put this conversation on the shelf." I would add that given recent events, the accompanying tone of public discourse, and the Christian imperatives that we are to love our neighbor as our self, and that we are to do unto others as we would have them do unto us, provide strong motivations for participating in this workshop.

Thank you again for the great blessing of being your pastor and allowing me the privilege of ministering with you in the Utica/New Hartford area and walking with you in faith.

Your brother in Christ and fellow sojourner,

Pastor David

This looks to be a fascinating lecture and we all certainly know Jack's exceptional skill and passion when it comes to history! We encourage you to attend. Parts 1 & 2 of this lecture series were held at St. Peter's Lutheran in Verona and Trinity Lutheran in Herkimer, respectively. This 3rd part is independent of those two. Vignettes From Zion's History: To Celebrate the 175th

The Lord has blessed Zion Church with 175 years of opportunities for Christian service. As we celebrate this special occasion, we could easily dwell on major events. This tendency is common at congregational anniversaries, which often concentrate only on the prominent details that are affixed in memory. Although we value these happenings, we can be thankful for less noteworthy items in our heritage.

And these, a few of the many forgotten parts of Zion's history, we also celebrate in our 175th year:

Zion's Women's Charitable Association, started by Andrew and Elizabeth Wetzel in 1852, "to visit the poor and minister to their wants, and to aid students for the ministry by contributions of clothing." The Utica Morning Herald reported in 1875: "Much good has been done by the association during the many years of its existence."

Zion's Messenger, the church's newsletter from the 1920s through the 1940s, which contained this invitation in 1922: "Your church's doors are wide open. Every hungry soul is welcome. Bring your friends. Bring strangers."

The character our people showed at Thanksgiving, 1930, as the Great Depression intensified daily. At the morning's service, the congregation sang the hymn, "Now Thank We All Our God."

The good people of Zion's Welfare Council, who directed material and nutritional aid to members in need during the Depression.

Lutheran Church Women such as Marie Geiger and Gertrude Mursch, who spent weeks at Utica's Overseas Friendship Center after World War II, packing books, clothing, and food for war-ravaged European nations.

Lena Bingel Schaub, whose quiet generosity helped keep Zion fiscally afloat in the 1940s and early 1950s. Lena loaned our church the money to purchase the Walnut Street parsonage for Pastor Edmund Bosch in 1946. When Zion faced a lean year in 1952, Lena wrote a check that eased the financial strain.

William "Bill" Yost, who brought his blind brother, Otto, to church in the 1950s and 1960s. Even after they reached eighty, Bill provided the personal care that Otto required. The "Yost boys" seldom missed a Sunday.

The friendliness of ushers like Oscar Funke, Fred Smith, Carl Voll, and Louie Ditzel who, a half century ago, handed parishioners their service programs with a smiling "good morning." And the countless Zion greeters who continued this tradition.

The members who donated hundreds of items to Utica's Community Food Bank in 1976, and in other years when the city's less fortunate needed a helping hand. And their counterparts today who care about the Johnson Park Ministry, Your Neighbors, and Utica's Refugee Center, among other causes.

The personal petitions, read for the past forty years by our pastors during communion prayers, every entreaty a deep-felt expression of Christian love and concern. The prayers' details may be forgotten, but their spirit endures.

And the thousands of people in our history who found, at Zion Church, a welcoming place where they could worship the Lord. We celebrate their lives.

As we think about our church's future, we look for fresh avenues of Christian service. These opportunities for outreach will surely arise and afford us the chance to write a beautiful new chapter for the bicentennial history in 2042.

The Vignettes columns are researched and written by Jack Henke.

Zion's Music Festival - August 19, 2017

Thank you!

Zion's first annual outdoor music festival was a lot of fun and good music. The groups that performed were all excellent: Matt Aceto, Jenna Casper, the Rome First United Methodist Praise Band, the Paris Hill (formerly Triumph) Brass, Brian Gadbow (who also helped us celebrate worship the next day at our 10 AM service) and Zion's Men's Quartet. Bravo! BIG THANKS to John Aceto and Matt Aceto, who handled the sound system, and John Blackburn, who directed several Hamilton College students in setting up and putting away equipment after the Festival, made all of the signs for the Festival, as well as arranging for Zion's Youth Group's ice cream sundaes. Thanks to our Youth for serving ice cream, and Carol Blackburn for setting up the ice cream with the help of several other adults. Thanks to our sexton, Mike Stevens, as well as John and Matt Aceto and John Blackburn for setting up the stage, and for Mike and his dad for disassembling and storing the stage. Thanks to Beth Dubeck and Jennifer Pierce for the face painting of young and old, and to our visiting Hamilton students for entertaining the children in Zion's Fellowship Hall. Thanks to Fran Holzberger, who worked on publicity and had the cute laminated cards made that were distributed. Thanks to Debbie Yacovella, who also worked on publicity. Thanks to our Pastor David for speaking and making all feel welcome, and for his support of the Festival. Many people stepped in on Saturday and helped with making our guests feel welcome, such as Ann and Dave McCarthy, Linda Bennett, Debbie Murdock, Doreen Nicholls, Laurel McCurdy, Evon Pinkos, and others too - you know who you are. Thanks to our photographers, Lorraine Dowd, Matt LaFave, John Blackburn and Kim Marscher (video). And, thanks to Jim Marscher, who had a dream about a Music Festival at Zion and made it come true, with some help from Kim. Please put the Festival on your calendar for next year - remember our new motto: "God's work, our hands" as we celebrate with music in our community.

BIBLE STUDY: Zion will begin a new Bible study called, "Introduction to the Bible" on Wednesday, September 13 at 10:00 AM - 12:00 PM. If you need a suggestion for a Bible to use for this study, "the Lutheran Study Bible" is a good one Pr. David recommends. As an introduction to the study, people are encouraged to read the "Intro to the Bible" section of this Bible. Pr. David is also looking into an additional time for this study for those who can't attend on Wednesday mornings. This study is envisioned as a year-long project. Questions, please e-mail or call Pr. David (pastor@zionluth.com or 315-732-4110).

Attention Zion Adult Members!

We are ready to say goodbye to summer, and think about our next direction. How about thinking about "YOU", and treating your body to some "training"? On Monday, September 11, 2017 at 10:15 AM, I will be giving a Pilates free-weights class. The class will be 45 minutes. Free weights means using hand weights, not machines. Our muscles hold us together and we need to work them, so they will work for us. This class is for ladies and gentlemen members. All you need is two 16 oz. (filled) water bottles, comfortable clothing, and I will teach you the moves. If you cannot stand, you may sit down. We have modifications for all moves. We will do this in the downstairs Fellowship Hall. This is my 14th year of teaching weight training professionally. Please give it a try - I look forward to helping you. Ask me any questions after church or call me after 10 AM at 315-853-5652.

From the Pen of Mae Parker

In the quiet of the forest
With light shining through the trees
You can see and feel God's creation
Floating safely on the breeze

You can burst out in adoration
Thanking God for all his love
Taking in the glorious color
Of the trees and bushes and the shrubs

Vivid colors dot the landscape
Red and yellow and some brown
Oh, the Master took his finger
And painted all the leaves around

What would life be like
Without the colors of the fall
Without the loving savior to guide us
It wouldn't be a life at all

A MESSAGE FROM PR. ANN ZIMMERMAN

Dear Trinity Council and Congregation:

For everything there is a season, and a time for every matter under heaven. (Ecclesiastes 3:1) "With this verse and God's guidance, I announce my retirement from active ministry at Trinity and Upstate New York Synod to return to my home synod of Upper Susquehanna Synod in Pennsylvania effective October 31, 2017. I am grateful for the partnership in God's ministry at Trinity, and all the events and mission that we've accomplished for the glory of God over the last 12+ years. I know that God has great plans for Trinity in the future and wish you all the best as you faithfully follow Jesus".

“Race in Our Community” Workshop

Date: Saturday, September 16

Time: 9:00 a.m. – 3:00 p.m.

Location: Zion Lutheran Church

This workshop will address the issue of racism in America and more importantly here in the Mohawk Valley. The purpose of this forum is to raise our awareness about the impact racism has in our lives – even when we may not be aware of it. The presenter, Patrick L. Johnson, will create an atmosphere that will allow all participants to share their experiences and concerns about racism in America. This workshop will afford the participants an opportunity to have an authentic conversation; one that is intended to be enriching and insightful. There will also be opportunities to offer solutions for a better community. One of the primary purposes of this workshop is to heighten our awareness as to how present racism is in the workplace and other areas of our life...even when we may not notice. Many people have not been offered the opportunity to have an honest dialogue about race relations. This is that opportunity. As the Mohawk Valley emerges into a very diverse community, we can no longer afford to put this conversation on the shelf. You are invited to join this important dialogue.

*A light lunch will be served

In order to create the best opportunity for significant and meaningful discussion, the number of participants will be limited to 35. There is no charge for this workshop, but donation will be accepted to help cover the costs. Please RSVP to Nancy Grove to reserve a place: Nancy Grove – Phone: 315-737-8621; Email: vegetables@riseup.net
