Hezekiah's Prayer

¹⁴ Hezekiah received the letter from the messengers and read it. Then he went up to the temple of the LORD and spread it out before the LORD. ¹⁵ And Hezekiah prayed to the LORD: ¹⁶ "LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, enthroned between the cherubim, you alone are God over all the kingdoms of the earth.

You have made heaven and earth.

¹⁷ Give ear, LORD, and hear; open your eyes, LORD, and see; listen to all the words Sennacherib has sent to ridicule the living God.

¹⁸ “It is true, LORD, that the Assyrian kings have laid waste all these peoples and their lands. ¹⁹ They have thrown their gods into the fire and destroyed them, for they were not gods but only wood and stone, fashioned by human hands.

²⁰ Now, LORD our God, deliver us from his hand, so that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that you, LORD, are the only God. [\[a\]](#)”

14 After Moses had gone down the mountain to the people, he consecrated them, and they washed their clothes.

15 Then he said to the people,
“Prepare yourselves for the third day. Abstain from sexual relations.”

16 On the morning of the third day there was thunder and lightning, with a thick cloud over the mountain, and a very loud trumpet blast.

Everyone in the camp trembled.
17 Then Moses led the people out of the camp to meet with God, and they stood at the foot of the mountain.

18 Mount Sinai was covered with smoke, because the LORD descended on it in fire.

The smoke billowed up from it like smoke from a furnace, and the whole mountain[a] trembled violently.

19 As the sound of the trumpet grew louder and louder, Moses spoke and the voice of God answered him. [\[b\]](#)

20 The LORD descended to the top of Mount Sinai and called Moses to the top of the mountain.

So Moses went up ²¹ and the LORD said to him, "Go down and warn the people so they do not force their way through to see the LORD and many of them perish.

22 Even the priests, who approach the LORD, must consecrate themselves, or the LORD will break out against them."

23 Moses said to the LORD, “The people cannot come up Mount Sinai, because you yourself warned us, ‘Put limits around the mountain and set it apart as holy.’”

24 The LORD replied, “Go down and bring Aaron up with you.

But the priests and the people must not force their way through to come up to the LORD, or he will break out against them."

25 So Moses went down to the people and told them.

20-¹ And God spoke all these words:

² “I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of Egypt, out of the land of slavery.

Preparation for Communion

People's Community Church Covenant

(Please read in unison)

“We, the members of this church, do solemnly covenant together with God, and with one another that we will abstain from fleshly lusts which war against the soul;

we will be kind to one another,
putting away from us all
bitterness, anger, wrath, clamor,
and evil speaking: and we will be tenderhearted, forgiving one another even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven us.

We who are heads of families will observe the worship of God in our homes and will endeavor to lead our children or others committed to our care, to a saving knowledge and personal faith in the Lord Jesus Christ. We will attend regularly, so far as Providence permits, the service of worship on the Lord's Day and such other services as the church may appoint. We will observe together the Lord's Supper.

We will aid as the Lord prospers us, in the support of a faithful Christian ministry among us, and in sending the saving gospel of Christ to the whole human family.

We will remember those who have the rule over us, esteeming them very highly for their work's sake. For them we will faithfully pray, and with them we will faithfully labor, as it may be our privilege. God being our helper, this we do covenant to do".

(Next Slide)

Prayer of Confession

Therefore confess your sins to each other and pray for each other so that you may be healed. The prayer of a righteous person is powerful and effective. (James 5:16)

(Next Slide)

Prayer of Forgiveness

Then I acknowledged my sin to you and did not cover up my iniquity. I said, "I will confess my transgressions to the LORD." And you forgave the guilt of my sin. (Psalm 32:5)
