God’s Big Ten

They say it doesn’t matter how you get there as long as we are happy in the journey. Right and wrong is determined by what we feel. It seems there are no set rules to follow, you just make up your own as you go. God knows we need a moral compass. We need clear directions to get us to our goal. And, He has given us a very clear, unchanging moral code to keep us going the right way. We call them the Ten Commandments. Through the winter months of January, February and March, our Sunday messages will examine each of the commandments and how they apply to our lives. Here’s the challenge: Memorize the ten in order. Here they are:

Ten Commandments

- 1. You shall have no other gods.
- 2. You shall not make for yourself an idol.
- 3. You shall not misuse the name of the Lord your God.
- 4. Remember the Sabbath by keeping it holy.
- 5. Honor your father and mother.
- 6. You shall not murder.
- 7. You shall not commit adultery
- 8. You shall not steal.
- 9. You shall not lie.
- 10. You shall not covet.

Our Deacons

Space hinders us from giving bios on our Deacons but we wanted to mention we have three new men on our team: Ken Drollinger, Joe Johnson, and Bill McDaniel. They join Larry Beals, Mark Curry, Alva McQueen, Daric Peadro, Greg Smith to form our Board of Deacons.
