The Coming of the King "Mary"

Luke 1: 26-38

For Further Discussion

Which aspects of Mary's circumstance (Jewish, 16-ish, betrothed, line of David, virgin) might have made it easier to respond positively to the angel's (God's) plan? Which might have made it harder?

Does it seem like Mary had trouble believing the angel? Why or why not?

How might have her status as "highly favored" impacted her response?

What can Mary's story teach us about responding to Jesus as King?
