"The Race of Life"

1 Corinthians 9:24-27

For Further Discussion

Do you like the allegory of life as a race? Why or why not?

What were the three areas to consider when running your life race? Which one is most challenging? Easiest?

What do you think it might mean to be disqualified from the prize?

Are you running in such a way as to win the prize? (Which group are you in?) Are there things you can do to move into the winning group?
