Living as We Ought

The Sermon on the Mount

“Practicing Righteousness with Right Motives”

Matthew 6: 1-18

For Further Discussion

Why are we often pulled toward acting as hypocrites or pretenders, especially in “righteous” practices? Do you believe that pretty much everyone is looking for approval from others?

What do you think Jesus is referring to when He mentions “rewards”?

What compels a Kingdom dweller to practice these acts of righteousness?

Which of these – giving, prayer, fasting – is easiest for you? Most difficult?
