CABIN LEADER RESPONSIBILITIES

Ideally, you will share cabin leader responsibilities with another adult, supervising campers from your church and others.

You will be expected to participate in activities with your campers. You may trade-off supervision with your co- cabin leader.

Feel free to direct questions or issues to the attention of the camp director when necessary. The camp director will bring up any group issues or corrections as necessary and will communicate with the appropriate people.

Begin now to pray for your campers

- Be ready to listen.
- Know where all your campers are all the time.
- You have the main responsibility for ensuring that the campers in your cabin dress appropriately. Check the words and images on clothing. Make sure all clothing is modest. Students have signed a dress code, so there is no need to apologize for holding them to it.
- Help your campers to be on time for all activities. Be an example. Don't be late yourself.
- In case of illness or injury, take the camper to a First Aid Team member.
- Set the example as you help your campers focus on a personal quiet time every morning, their relationship with God, and loving, respectful relationships with each other.
- At all times stay in plain view of others when talking with, counseling, praying with, or doing any activity with campers. You can find privacy out in the open at camp! This guideline protects both you and our campers.
- One camper per bunk at all times. This rule must be strictly enforced.
- You will be expected to lead bedtime devotion for your church group each evening (or share this responsibility with your co-cabin leader). This can be a prayer time, a simple sharing of how God has spoken to you today, or a meditation on a verse of scripture. Keep it simple. The point is to focus campers on God at work in and around them as they end the day. Help the students to process what God is speaking to them each day.
 - You may need to use your own judgment about the depth and direction of group discussions in your cabin. Depending on the age, maturity, and diversity of your group.
- Do not tolerate bullying, abusive behavior or untruthfulness. Campers have signed a Code of Conduct for which they will be held accountable. It is wise to involve a second adult when confronting these behaviors.
- Enforce morning and evening curfews. Except for a quick trip to the restroom, no camper should be away from the cabin between 11:30pm and 7:45am (unless early shower times are pre-arranged).
- Choose strategic places to sit during Worship so that you can set a good example of attentiveness and discourage distractions. It is appropriate and encouraged that you and campers sit together as a cabin.
- Bring major or repetitive discipline problems to the Camp Director.

CAMP DRESS CODE

The purpose of our dress code is to eliminate distractions and support the principles of modesty and Christ-like love and behavior.

Parents and church leaders are urged to see that only clothing which meets the policies and regulations of the camp is brought to Camp. It is the responsibility of the adult leaders from each church to model the standard of modesty and enforce the camp dress code.

While at camp, we ask that students and adults:

-- Wear modest bathing suits that are not overly revealing or tight.

-- Do not dress in a way that calls attention to their underwear (sagging your pants, rolling down your waistbands, etc.) --
Do not wear inappropriately short skirts or shorts

--Wear sturdy closed toe shoes at all times to protect their feet

Please do not bring anything that:

-- Advertises alcohol, tobacco, illegal drugs

-- Explicitly or implicitly promotes racism, sexism, or hatred of any group or person

-- Explicitly or implicitly refers to sexual actions or situations

-- Is excessively short or tight fitting.

The best rule is, if you're unsure of whether something is too immodest, just wear something else.

Please share your skills, talents, and abilities which you will apply as part of the leadership team:
