

Hour of Preparation

1/31/2026

Jesus Is Coming Soon

By PASTOR DANIEL H. LENDEH

Jesus Is Coming Soon: Understanding the Signs of the Times

Across the pages of Scripture, one prophetic truth stands firm and unshaken: Jesus Christ is coming again. This promise is not symbolic, distant, or uncertain; it is a central pillar of Christian faith and a defining hope for the Church. In an age marked by global unrest, moral confusion, natural disasters, and spiritual decline, the biblical message of Christ's soon return speaks with renewed urgency and relevance.

Jesus Himself addressed the subject of the end times with clarity and compassion. In Matthew 24:3 thru 8, when the disciples asked about the sign of His coming and the end of the age, Jesus responded by pointing to global conditions: wars and rumors of wars, famines, pestilences, and earthquakes in various places. He described these not as the end itself, but as "the beginning of sorrows" — birth pains signaling that something momentous is approaching. Today, these signs are no longer distant prophecies; they are daily headlines.

Scripture also warns of increasing deception and spiritual compromise in the last days. 2 Timothy 3:1 thru 5 declares, "In the last days perilous times will come," describing a generation marked by selfishness, pride, lawlessness, and a form of godliness without true power. This moral and spiritual erosion serves as another clear indicator that the world is moving toward the fulfillment of biblical prophecy.

Yet, amid these warnings, the Bible consistently calls believers not to fear, but to prepare. Jesus said in Luke 21:28, "When these things begin to happen, look up and lift up your heads, because your redemption draws near." The return of Christ is not a threat to the faithful; it is the blessed hope of redemption, restoration, and eternal glory.

The Apostle Paul emphasized this hope in 1 Thessalonians 4:16 thru 17, assuring believers that the Lord Himself will descend from heaven, the dead in Christ will rise first, and those who remain will be caught up to meet the Lord in the air. This event, commonly referred to as the rapture, reminds the Church that history is not random. God has set a divine timetable, and every promise will be fulfilled.

The book of Revelation further reveals the certainty of Christ's return. Revelation 1:7 proclaims, "Behold, He is coming with clouds, and every eye will see Him." This is not a secret event hidden from the world, but a glorious and visible return of the King of Kings. Jesus will come not as the suffering Savior, but as the righteous Judge and reigning Lord.

In light of these truths, the question is not if Jesus is coming, but are we ready? Jesus repeatedly urged His followers to remain watchful. In Matthew 24:42, He warned, "Watch therefore, for you do not know what hour your Lord is coming." Watchfulness involves spiritual alertness, faithful living, and wholehearted devotion to God.

Preparation is not about panic or speculation; it is about holy living. 2 Peter 3:10 thru 14 challenges believers to live in holiness and godliness, knowing that the day of the Lord will come unexpectedly. The certainty of Christ's return should inspire repentance, compassion, evangelism, and a deeper commitment to God's purpose.

The Hour of Preparation exists to sound this biblical warning and encouragement: now is the time to align our lives with God's will. Families are called back to prayer, churches to truth, and believers to active Kingdom service. The message "Jesus is coming soon" is both a warning to the unprepared and a comfort to the faithful.

As the signs intensify and prophecy unfolds before our eyes, Scripture reassures us that God remains in control. Jesus promised in John 14:1 thru 3 that He is preparing a place for His people and will return to receive them unto Himself. This promise anchors the Church with hope beyond the chaos of this world.

The final invitation of Scripture echoes with urgency and love: "The Spirit and the bride say, 'Come!'" (Revelation 22:17). Jesus is coming soon. The call of this hour is clear: be ready, stay faithful, and live with eternity in view.

Faith Revival Service Concludes Across ETRM

Recognizing Your Kingdom Assignment

"Recognizing Your Kingdom Assignment" A Global Move of God

End Time Reminder Ministries (ETRM) has just concluded a powerful three-day Faith Revival Service held simultaneously across its global branches in Liberia, the United States, Guinea, Sierra Leone, and Kenya. The revival, themed "Recognizing Your Kingdom Assignment," was inspired by Esther 4:10 thru 17 and marked a defining spiritual moment for the ministry worldwide.

From the very first night, it was evident that God was at work. Across all locations, the atmosphere was charged with deep worship, fervent prayer, and the uncompromising preaching of the Word of God. The message centered on divine purpose, obedience, courage, and responsibility — calling believers to recognize that they have been positioned by God, just as Queen Esther was, "for such a time as this."

Throughout the three days, the power of God was tangibly evident. Congregations testified of strong conviction, heartfelt repentance, and renewed spiritual hunger. As the Word was preached, hearts were stirred and lives were challenged to move beyond fear, delay, and complacency into bold obedience to God's call. The unity of the Spirit was clearly felt as ETRM branches across continents gathered under one theme, one vision, and one prophetic burden.

One of the most impactful moments of the revival was the bold proclamation of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Each night, altar calls were made with clarity and compassion, and many responded by surrendering their lives to Christ. Souls were saved, names were written in the Book of Life, and heaven rejoiced as individuals publicly confessed Jesus as Lord and Savior.

In addition to salvation, the revival was marked by deliverance and healing. Testimonies emerged from different branches of chains being broken, spiritual oppression lifted, emotional wounds healed, and long-standing burdens released through prayer and the power of the Holy Spirit. Physical healings were also evident, confirming that Jesus Christ remains the same yesterday, today, and forever.

The revival meetings emphasized that Kingdom assignment is not optional. Believers were reminded that silence, fear, or compromise in critical moments can delay God's purpose, but obedience releases divine intervention. Like Esther, participants were encouraged to arise, take responsibility, and trust God even when the assignment demands sacrifice.

At the conclusion of the three-day revival, ETRM General Overseer, Pastor Daniel H. Lendeh, led the global ministry in a powerful time of prayer. Standing on behalf of ETRM worldwide, he thanked God for His faithfulness and abundant blessings throughout the month of January, acknowledging God's protection, provision, and grace over the ministry and its members.

He further offered earnest prayers for the days ahead, asking God to guide, direct, and establish His people as they enter the month of February. He prayed for renewed strength, clarity of purpose, spiritual sensitivity, and grace for every believer to walk boldly in their Kingdom assignment. Leaders, families, youths, and nations represented within ETRM were all committed into God's hands.

The Faith Revival Service also reinforced ETRM's global mandate to prepare God's people spiritually, awaken them to purpose, and mobilize them for Kingdom impact. Despite cultural and geographical differences, the same message resonated across all branches: God is calling His people to rise, respond, and fulfill their divine assignment in this generation.

As the revival concluded, one truth stood unmistakably clear: God visited His people. Lives were transformed, faith was restored, and hearts were aligned afresh with God's will. The spiritual fire ignited during these three days continues to burn, propelling ETRM forward with renewed passion and commitment.

This just-ended Faith Revival Service will long be remembered as a moment of awakening and alignment for End Time Reminder Ministries. With gratitude for what God has done and expectation for what lies ahead, ETRM moves forward declaring with confidence: the call has been heard, the assignment has been revealed, and the people of God are ready to obey.

Revival! Revival! Revival!

ETRM Concludes 21 Days of Fasting and Prayer Globally

A Season of Consecration, Renewal, and Kingdom Alignment

A Global Season of Consecration, Renewal, and Kingdom Alignment

On January 25, 2026, End Time Reminder Ministries (ETRM) officially concluded its 21 Days of Fasting and Prayer, marking a powerful and spiritually transformative season that united all ETRM branches worldwide in one accord. From Liberia, the United States, Guinea, Sierra Leone, and Kenya, believers stood together in prayer and fasting, seeking God's face for direction, renewal, and empowerment for the year ahead.

The 21-day fast was more than a spiritual discipline; it was a deliberate call to consecration and alignment with God's purpose. Each day, members gathered for structured morning and afternoon prayer sessions, both in person and virtually, lifting unified prayers of thanksgiving, repentance, intercession, and surrender. Across continents and time zones, ETRM experienced the beauty and strength of a global church praying with one voice.

Throughout the fast, the atmosphere across all branches was marked by deep spiritual hunger and expectancy. Worship was heartfelt, prayer was fervent, and the Word of God was central. Many participants testified of renewed intimacy with God, sharpened spiritual discernment, restored passion for prayer, and clarity concerning their personal and Kingdom assignments. Families prayed together, leaders interceded for their congregations, and the church stood in the gap for nations and communities.

The themes guiding the 21 days focused on gratitude for God's faithfulness, personal consecration, spiritual empowerment, obedience, watchfulness, and readiness to fulfill Kingdom assignments. These prayer emphases helped believers not only to reflect on God's goodness in past seasons but also to prepare their hearts for what God is set to do in 2026. It was a time of intentional slowing down, turning away from distractions to hear clearly from the Lord.

One of the most powerful outcomes of the fast was the unity it fostered across ETRM's global family. Despite physical distances, members remained spiritually connected through shared prayer guides, scriptures, and daily focuses. This collective discipline strengthened bonds among branches and reinforced the truth that ETRM is one body with one mission, regardless of geography.

At the conclusion of the 21 days, ETRM General Overseer, Pastor Daniel H. Lendeh, led the ministry in a solemn and joyful closing prayer. He thanked God for grace, strength, and preservation throughout the fast, acknowledging that it was only by God's enabling that believers were able to press through with commitment and faith. He expressed gratitude for the obedience and sacrifice of members across all branches who took the call to fasting seriously.

Pastor Daniel H. Lendeh also committed the months ahead into God's hands, praying for divine wisdom, spiritual sensitivity, and guidance for every leader, family, and congregation within ETRM. He emphasized that fasting and prayer do not end with the conclusion of the 21 days, but rather launch believers into a lifestyle of dependence on God and obedience to His leading.

Testimonies emerging from the fast include reports of breakthroughs in prayer, healing, restored relationships, financial direction, renewed calling, and strengthened faith during challenging circumstances. Many believers shared that the fast rekindled their love for God's Word and deepened their commitment to walking in holiness and purpose.

As ETRM moves forward from this sacred season, the ministry does so with confidence that God honors a praying and consecrated people. The conclusion of the 21 Days of Fasting and Prayer stands as a spiritual landmark reminding the church that preparation precedes manifestation, and that seeking God wholeheartedly positions believers for Kingdom effectiveness.

This global fast has laid a strong spiritual foundation for the year ahead. With hearts aligned, spirits refreshed, and faith renewed, ETRM steps forward ready to fulfill God's mandate believing that the same God who sustained them through the fast will lead them victoriously through every season of 2026.

ETRM successfully ends 21 days fast and prayer

ETRM Welcomes the Community to February's First Sunday Service

Preparing for Kingdom Assignment

End Time Reminder Ministries (ETRM) warmly invites the community to join the first Sunday Service of February at any ETRM branch in Liberia, the United States, Guinea, Sierra Leone, and Kenya. As a global family united by faith and purpose, ETRM steps into a new month with expectation, hope, and a clear spiritual focus under the theme "Preparing for Kingdom Assignment," inspired by Joshua 3:1 thru 11.

February marks a season of preparation—preparation of hearts, minds, and lives for what God is ready to do. In Joshua 3, the people of Israel stood at the edge of the Jordan River, facing what appeared to be an impossible crossing. Yet God instructed them to sanctify themselves, for He was about to do wonders among them. That moment was not only about movement; it was about alignment, obedience, and trust in divine direction. In the same way, ETRM enters February believing that God is positioning His people for new beginnings and Kingdom responsibilities.

Throughout this month, the message will center on readiness for God's next move. February is not approached casually, but prayerfully—with hearts open to instruction and lives yielded to God's will. The theme "Preparing for Kingdom Assignment" reminds believers that before God works through us, He often works within us. Preparation precedes promotion, obedience precedes breakthrough, and faith precedes manifestation.

During this first Sunday Service, worshippers can expect a welcoming atmosphere filled with vibrant praise, sound biblical teaching, and heartfelt prayer. The service will emphasize faith, courage, and forward movement—encouraging individuals and families to step confidently into what God has planned for them. Whether one is seeking direction, renewal, healing, or a deeper understanding of purpose, this service offers a space to encounter God and receive spiritual clarity.

ETRM believes that God has significant plans for the month of February. It is a time to cross into new spiritual territory, just as Israel crossed the Jordan. It is a time for testimonies, answered prayers, restored hope, and strengthened faith. God is still opening doors, making ways where there seem to be obstacles, and leading His people step by step into His promises. February is embraced as a month of divine guidance, supernatural provision, and Kingdom alignment.

Community members from all walks of life are encouraged to attend and be part of this journey. You do not have to have everything figured out to come only a willing heart. ETRM is a place where faith is nurtured, lives are transformed, and purpose is discovered through God's Word. This invitation extends to individuals, families, youths, and elders alike—everyone is welcome to experience what God is doing in this season.

Across continents and cultures, End Time Reminder Ministries continues to stand as a ministry committed to truth, prayer, discipleship, and Kingdom impact. The first Sunday in February is more than a regular service; it is a call to step forward in faith and walk together with the Lord. It is an opportunity to align with God's purpose and to prepare for assignments that bring glory to Him and blessing to others.

As February begins, ETRM invites the community to come expect-tant, come prepared, and come ready to move forward with God. Join us at any ETRM branch and be part of a shared journey of faith, obedience, and transformation. Together with the Lord, we prepare together, we move forward.

Be Jesus' Guest

End Time Reminder Ministries
3 Chester Pike, Darby PA 19023
This and every....

Sunday @ 10:00 AM
Divine Worship Service

Wednesday @ 6:30PM
Enrichment Service

Friday @ 6:30PM
Hour Of Preparation Service

3 Chester Pike, Darby, PA 19023
Contact: 215-617-7395
Email: admin@etrmglobal.com
Website: www.etrmglobal.com
JESUS IS COMING SOON!

Invitation To Join Us

ETRM Global Celebrates 11 Years of Ministry

ETRM Global Marks 11 Years of God's Faithfulness

From a Garage Gathering to a Global Kingdom Movement

Tomorrow, February 1, 2026, End Time Reminder Ministries (ETRM) joyfully celebrates 11 years of God's unfailing faithfulness. This milestone is not only a celebration of time, but a testimony of obedience, perseverance, prayer, and divine purpose fulfilled through God's grace.

ETRM officially began on February 1, 2015, in the most humble of settings—the garage of its founder and General Overseer, Pastor Daniel H. Lendeh. On that first Sunday service, just 49 people gathered in faith, responding to a God-given vision centered on repentance, spiritual preparedness, sound doctrine, and Kingdom living. There were no grand facilities, no global platform—only a burning conviction that God had called His servant to raise a people prepared for the times and anchored in truth.

What unfolded from that small beginning is a powerful reminder that God does not despise humble starts. From that garage service, the Lord steadily expanded the ministry first locally, then nationally, and now globally. Eleven years later, ETRM stands as a growing international ministry with branches across Liberia, the United States, Guinea, Sierra Leone, Kenya, and other regions, united by one vision and one message: live ready, live faithful, and fulfill your Kingdom assignment.

Over the past 11 years, ETRM has remained steadfast in preaching the Gospel of Jesus Christ without compromise. Through consistent teaching, fervent prayer, revival services, fasting seasons, discipleship programs, leadership training, and community outreach, countless lives have been transformed. Souls have been saved, backsliders restored, the sick healed, and families strengthened by the power of God and the truth of His Word.

The journey has not been without challenges. Like every God-ordained work, ETRM has faced seasons of testing, sacrifice, and stretching. Yet through every phase, the hand of God has been evident—providing resources, raising leaders, opening doors across nations, and sustaining the ministry through unwavering grace. What began with 49 faithful believers has grown into a multi-generational, multi-national spiritual family.

At the heart of ETRM's growth is its unwavering emphasis on watchfulness, holiness, obedience, and purpose. The ministry has consistently reminded believers that Christianity is not passive; every believer has a divine role to play in God's redemptive plan. This conviction has shaped ETRM's teachings, annual themes, revival focuses, and global missions.

As ETRM turns 11, gratitude fills the hearts of its leaders and members worldwide. Gratitude to God for preservation, protection, and provision. Gratitude for the founder's obedience to answer God's call when the vision was unseen and the resources were limited. Gratitude for pastors, ministers, deacons, workers, partners, and members who have labored faithfully—often behind the scenes—to see God's work advance.

This anniversary is also a moment of reflection and renewed commitment. The ministry recognizes that the same God who started ETRM in a garage is the same God leading it into greater influence and responsibility. The vision is expanding, but the foundation remains the same: prayer, the Word, the leading of the Holy Spirit, and total dependence on God.

Eleven years marks a prophetic season of alignment and maturity. As ETRM steps into another year of ministry, it does so with clarity and expectation—believing God for deeper impact, stronger families, empowered leaders, global harvest, and greater Kingdom advancement. The current emphasis on Kingdom Assignment Fulfillment reflects a call to action for every believer connected to the ministry.

Tomorrow's celebration is more than an anniversary—it is a declaration that God is faithful, His promises are sure, and His work continues. From a garage with 49 people to a global ministry touching nations, ETRM stands as living proof that when God speaks and His people obey, nothing is impossible.

As the ministry celebrates 11 years, one testimony resounds across every branch: "Thus far the Lord has helped us and the journey is far from over."

Be Jesus' Guest

End Time Reminder Ministries (E.T.R.M)

KRU HILL- JOHNSONVILLE
EMAIL: etrm2015@gmail.com
Info: 0777353266 / 0886618127

Sunday Service: 9am
Divine Service

Wednesday 6.00PM
Enrichment Service

Friday 6.00PM
Hour Of Preparation

JESUS IS LORD

ETRM Global