

HIGH SCHOOL (G9-12)

Calvary Christian School offers advanced, standard, and modified standard diplomas. Generally, a decision is made initially upon enrollment on which type of diploma is being sought based on student and parent goals, past academic achievements, and other circumstances.

The courses offered and required for graduation are based on the Prince William County Schools guidelines for graduation, plus up to five additional credits.

Concerning Foreign languages: Two years of two different languages may be taken to meet the advance requirement. For example: Two years of Spanish may be taken at CCS and two years of Latin may be taken at NOVA. Students who do not have English as their first language may test out of the Foreign Language requirements but may be required to take ESL in their place.
