Issues with Genesis 1 & 2

It's normal for Hebrew literature to consider a topic from one _____ and then to look at it from a totally different or opposite angle.

Genesis 1 has a _____ point of view and looks at the big picture of creation.

Genesis 2 has a _____ viewpoint that looks at the creation of people and God's relationship with them.

Creation and humans

Humanity is the _____ of creation

Worship is rooted in the _____ with humanity that God established at creation.

Imago Dei is a Latin phrase that means "_____."

Humans were created to:

1. _____ God
2. have _____
3. be _____
4. live in a _____ relationship with God

Humans don't derive their worth by what they do but because of _____ as image bearers.

How a Christian with a correct CWV approaches _____ can become a way to show their beliefs because his/her work ethic should set them apart.
