

Christian Worldview
Practical Wisdom - continued
May 26

God's mission is characterized by sending, and its corollary, serving

Through Jesus's _____, he made a way for individuals to be saved from sin and death and for the whole world to be set right.

_____ happens when people abuse power or place themselves at the center of the world.

Followers of Jesus today are called to continue his _____ to set the world right and establish justice.

God's Mission Becomes Humanity's Mission

The human heart longs for _____, _____, and _____.

Jesus did not call his followers to be isolated and _____.

Jesus carried on God's plan of calling _____ people to carry God's message.

Becoming a disciple

The invitation to become a disciple of Jesus is an _____ invitation.

Being a follower of Christ is not about assenting to a list of _____; it is about a living relationship with the King of the kingdom.

There is a difference between being a Christian in _____ and being a Christian in practice.

Being a disciple of Jesus is _____; it requires that people give up being the king of their own kingdom.

(NOTES)

Scripture read: Matthew 20:25–28; John 17:18; John 20:21; Matthew 28:19-20

Scripture referenced: Matthew 5:13–16; John 16:13

HOMEWORK

1. How much of your time each month is dedicated to serving others? Is serving or being served your default position?
2. If you got that mysterious summons that begins, “Your mission, should you choose to accept it” what would that mission be?
3. Are you still in the process of becoming a disciple or are you a disciple maker? What does it take to move from one to the other?
4. If you’re a member of the Kingdom of God what do you consider to be your primary mission?