

Notes from Harry Sexton, Assoc. Pastor

As you're reading this, I'm suffering somewhere in Alaska wearing a sweater as it's in the mid 60's. It's a big change from the super-hot July temperatures in Phoenix but all of life is a constant change. We long for things to stay the same; to be something that we can count on. But really, that's not what most of our lives are like. We have moments of things being stable, and then circumstances change and our lives can feel very unstable. Isn't it good to remember that "Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and forever" (Hebrews 13:8). Our Lord and King does not change. Even better is the fact that His plans for us and all of history have not wavered. The prophet, Jeremiah, gave these words to God's people in a time of great calamity in chapter 29, verse 11— "For I know the plans I have for you—'this is the LORD's declaration'—plans for your welfare, not for disaster, to give you a future and a hope."

We've come to yet another time of change in our church, and yet the God that we serve has not and will not change and His plan for history and for this body of believers proceeds unabated and perfectly on schedule. Thus, we find ourselves again looking for the man that God has for us as our lead pastor. The Elder Team will soon initiate that search and will be looking for an adjunct group to assist us with that endeavor. Please be in prayer both for the Elder Team and whether or not God is directing you to be a part of the group assisting the Elder Team with this task.

The last group did a great job in seeking God's will and bringing the man that God had for us. Even though it turned out to be for a short time only, their efforts were God honoring and God directed. That is in the past, and it's time for us to move forward. We have a mission to complete in making "disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit" (Matt. 28:19).

So, Laveen Baptist, look to the unchanging God whose plans do not change. The Christian life is always forward and never backwards. While we can feel unsettled, we serve a God who is perfect and loves us completely. A new era is upon us and I, for one, can't wait to see what God is going to do.

In His service, Pastor Harry

Notes from the Youth Team

By Diane Williams

Last week was Zona Camp. We took 30 students and 5 adult leaders to the California Baptist University campus in Riverside, California. The speaker was Scott Worthington, lead pastor of Hope Church in Las Vegas, Nevada. The evening sessions focused on Image, Idols, Invitation, and Invasion while the morning sessions encouraged students and leaders to get into the Word of God.

Monday evening: Image. “What you think about yourself changes everything else.” We are made in the image of God (Genesis 1:26-27). “I was created by God for God.” Everything was created through God and for God (Colossians 1:16). But something broke; we all have ugly hearts.

Tuesday morning: True wisdom is seeing life from God’s perspective. “Guard your heart, for everything you do flows from it.” (Proverbs 4:23). “What fills your heart, leads your life”. Tuesday evening: Idols. “Every human being is a worshipper.” “Worship is our response to what we value most.” “The human heart is an idol factory.” – John Calvin. “2 Lies the Devil Uses: 1. You cannot trust God. 2. _____ is better than what God has for you.” Fill in the blank with whatever is competing for your love for God. “Anything in the world that successfully competes with our love for God is an idol.” – John Piper. “Truth from God will set you free from the lies of the enemy.”

Wednesday morning: “We become like what we behold.” Those who make idols – of any kind – become like them (Psalm 115:4-8). “Trust in the Lord with all your heart...” (Proverbs 3:5-6).

Wednesday evening: Invitation. “Jesus invites people into a relationship that changes everything.” You must be born again (John 3:3). “In order to see our need for a Savior, we first need to understand the depth of our sin.” Sin is baked into who we are (Romans 3:23). Our just punishment is death (Romans 6:23). But God gives us an epic invitation; the Creator God of the universe wants to have a friendship relationship with us.

Thursday morning: The mountain top of Zona Camp will end. “You can’t live at camp, but you can live camp.” Following Jesus implies movement; live in the Book. “The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom...” (Proverbs 9:10). “For the word of God is living and active...discerning the thoughts and intentions of the heart.” (Hebrews 4:12). Thursday evening: Invasion. Jesus in you; the people who encounter Jesus never stay the same. Lie #1: Christianity is like clothes – something you put on and take off. “Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation...” (2 Corinthians 5:17). Jesus isn’t an accessory. Your new life is permanent. Lie #2: Jesus followers can remain unmoved. “Follow Me, and I will make you fishers of men.” (Matthew 4:19) “For those whom He foreknew He also predestined to be conformed to the image of His Son...” (Romans 8:29). Truth: Jesus desires for you to grow in your faith by the power of His Spirit in you (2 Peter 3:18). S.T.E.P.S.: S – Start a relationship with Jesus. T – Take sin seriously. “Be killing sin or it will be killing you” (John Owens). E – Establish real community. P – Practice, practice, practice. S – Serve the Lord where He’s called you.

Image, Idols, Invitation, Invasion: You were created to live your life in the love of God and glorify and serve Him. Choose to follow Jesus and let Him change you.

“Commit your way to the Lord; trust in Him, and He will act.” Psalm 37:5

Notes from the Worship Leader

Hello Church,

It has been quite a month, but no matter what, God is ALWAYS in control! This brought to my attention that we must pray, and pray continuously. We know that there is nothing that shocks God. He knows our past as He knows our future. As brother Sam says "God is good all the time and all the time God is good".

Like I said, prayer is important in our walk with Christ. Through prayer our relationship with God grows. That's because it is more than saying a few words. It's having a strong communication with God. I can't imagine not communicating with my wife, but through communication our relationship gets stronger. The same thing is with God. Praying to God is expressing our dependence on God. We know there are many things in this world we can't control, but there is someone who can and that's God. He is in control, and when we pray we are letting go of what we can't. We are humbling ourselves before Him and becoming the passenger in the purpose and plan He has for us as individuals and as His church. We are aligning to God's will and not to our own. God hears us when we pray, but He also speaks to us. Maybe not in a two-way conversation, but He speaks to us and when we pray and have that bond with Christ we become sensitive to His voice.

Now I say this to you, God's answer is not always right away. He is no genie in a bottle that we say our wishes to and He does an "I Dream of Genie" hand movement and there you go. This is where our dependence on God comes in again. We will get an answer, whether that is a yes or a no or an answer you did not like or expected. But He will answer within His time and not ours. As true believers we are no longer directed by what we want but by what He wants. Although we have dreams and aspirations, our aspiration as believers are to do God's work. We are more than church staff and church volunteers; we are God's servants, and as servants we will listen to God's direction. Whatever we face He will be there with us, and He is and will be in control.

Thank you church for what you do,

Cesar Aleman
