

Pat and Ray, volunteers with CEM also stated that, "We've had people come in with tears in their eyes, really needing food, in desperate situations." CEM is the hands of God, feeding the hungry and giving to those in need. Pastor Smith shares that "Proverbs says, when you give to the needy, you're giving to God and He will repay. Cutting Edge Ministries has seen God repay over and over again over the years as they've had struggles but God has always provided."

Bette Sneider, Smith's assistant has been key in finding grants and assistance in food donors to help them achieve their vision to Help Feed Hungry Families. Because of this, they were able to give out 1.5 million lbs. of food and other basic needs to 14,498 families in 2017 and in 2018, they gave out 1.75 million lbs. of food to 16,156 families.

