

Introduction

In Jesus' day, the clear responsibility of the rabbi was to teach them "how to fulfill the Torah". That is to say, "how to live a life pleasing to God". Jesus came to live it out and engrain it conversationally as an example. We have lost our way in this. We have left behind the conversational model Jesus used with the twelve for the lecture model he used with the masses from a mountainside or a boat just offshore. As Jesus piqued the curiosity of the crowd in these, individuals were drawn closer for the deeper conversations.

As the twelve became proficient through the life-on-life time Jesus afforded them, they were then able to do the same in support of the 70 and the 500. "Hey, John, Jesus is surrounded by people asking him questions and I can't get close to him. You are one of his guys, what does he have to say about this...?", thereby initiating a life-on-life opportunity for them!

Just like with you, there was not enough time in the day for Jesus to disciple every person around him! More importantly, how many cannot get to you and eventually give up on asking their questions because there is no one else to ask? Without 12 of your own, and a high level of visibility and recognition of who your 12 are, how many walk away - and we lose our chance to grow them? Not only them, but the 70 and the 500!

Please read this primer, and then continue on with Life, Love and Leading. These were written to support your discipleship and development efforts and are available free in both the published version and downloadable pdf.

Life has been used effectively for many years with individuals and in small group bible studies with people from all walks of life: the impoverished, the homeless, present & former prison inmates, struggling believers, wayward believers, in marital & pre-marital counseling, with friends, parents, pastors and teachers. Life helps us think about our conversations together with hearts after the Father, the mind and attitudes of Christ, language and actions that produce fruit of the Spirit, and love that proves we care and are his.

Love supports the individual prayer time needed in allowing God the Father, Son and Holy Spirit to accomplish his sanctification in our lives.

Leading helps us to build upon Life and Love collectively for community transformation. Scattered like salt across our communities and found, as Jesus was, in service to one another, each individual grain reflecting the light of God's love, more and more people will be led into lifesaving relationship – and our communities will be restored.

Chapter One

Who Will Reverse The Trend?

A Barna Group study in 2007 found that there is very little difference between the lifestyles & behaviors of people who call themselves Christian and those who do not. The evidence from work done by Pew Research and Gallup regarding people in the USA makes it clear that things are only getting worse:

- In 2000, 90% believed in God. In 2022 that number was 81%.
- In 2005, 79% were convinced that God exists. In 2017 that number was 64%.
- In 1971, 90% identified as Christian. In 2008: 77%. In 2019: 65%
- Between 2009-2019, the percentage of Christians who say they attend church regularly dropped 7%.
- Half of all Christians say they attend church once or twice each month.
- Half of all Christians say they only attend church a few times per year or less.
- In 1999, 73% were members of a church. In 2019 that number was 47%.
- In 2009, 17% identified as atheist, agnostic or “nothing in particular”. In 2019: 26%.

Given that half of all Christians say they only attend church a few times per year or less, another study tried to determine the percentage of believers who take the Great Commission of making disciples seriously. Their results? 7%.

What do we have wrong? The evidence is clear. Who will reverse the trend? Something must be wrong with our approach. Check the math, our task is not all that daunting. Using the 7% number from above, if each year each Christ follower will invest themselves in the life of one person they know who is not yet a true follower - within 4 years the entire USA will have had the opportunity to secure their eternity.

Each One Reach One Each Year:

- In Year 1: the 7% becomes 14%
- In Year 2: the 14% becomes 28%
- In Year 3: the 28% becomes 56%
- During Year 4: the 56% becomes 100%

Considering the world population, Pew Research states that 31% identify as Christian. Of them, perhaps we could say that 5% take the Great Commission of making disciples seriously. Doing the math again, assuming that every one of the 5% make just one true disciple each year, the entire world will have had the opportunity to secure their eternity within 6 years!

Each One Reach One Each Year:

- Year 1: 5%
- Year 2: 10%
- Year 3: 20%
- Year 4: 40%
- Year 5: 80%
- During Year 6: The 80% becomes 100%

Clearly, our problem is not in our numbers, but likely in that our approaches do not grow disciples who care - with hearts after the Father.

Where God's people are active in the character and attitudes of Jesus, the will of the Father and as led by the Spirit, Sigmoid Curves are the result. Now, after two thousand years, have we peaked? No, the data suggests that we are on the back side of a Bell Curve, backsliding from our peak. Is it not insanity that we continue to do what has brought us to this point? Let's go back to the era of Jesus to contemplate what we may be missing...

Given my desire to respect your time, church leader, and because of the substantial scriptural documentation available in the supportive book Life, Love and Leading, you will find the following chapters to be quick and direct. For your deeper consideration, please refer to Life, Love and Leading, available free in both the published version and downloadable pdf.

Please forgive my indulgence in brevity on your behalf as I do my best to get right to each point. Thank you in advance for your understanding.

Chapter Two

Before The Birth Of The Christ

Around 150-100 BC God was doing a new thing, but most Christians today do not perceive it. He was preparing the people of a small area of Israel (Bethsaida, Korazin and Capernaum) for the coming Messiah. This area, sometimes called The Triangle, developed a discipleship track that began with elementary school – Beth Sephir. There, they began teaching children to read and write using the Torah, and by the time they were twelve years old, all would have memorized most of it.

This was the beginning of a new thing, and it has been confirmed by a broad swath of historians. It had not previously existed within Israel, and was birthed at least a hundred years before Jesus' birth in Galilee, in preparation, in the area of The Triangle.

After Beth Sephir, somewhere around the age of 12, most boys would go into the family trade and most girls into supporting family life. However, for those who really had a passion for the Word of God, they could instead go on to Beth Midrash. Beth Midrash included study and memorization of most of the rest of the Hebrew Bible (the Tanakh) and provided them opportunity to begin considering a rabbinic lifestyle.

If you completed Beth Midrash and wanted to continue on to become a rabbi, you would observe the various rabbis in the area of The Triangle and ask one of them if you could follow them. If the rabbi agreed, he would give you an opportunity to follow him everywhere he went to talk with him about the great and deep learnings, understandings and interpretations available in the Tanakh. If the rabbi rejected you at some point, you would likely go back and join the family trade.

If your rabbi gained confidence in you as you walked together, you would become a talmid, one of his talmidim (plural), and be on your way to becoming a rabbi following several years of training. The role of the rabbi was to “teach the people how to fulfill the Torah”. That is to say, how to live a life pleasing to God. Spending every minute of every day with their rabbi, talmidim would watch and see and hear and learn how he helped people understand and fulfill the Torah. Both by his words and by his actions.

But what are talmidim? Talmidim are what we in the USA erroneously call “disciples, students and apprentices”:

A talmid is probably different than you think because we do not have any word for it in our English language. Unlike the words disciple or student or apprentice that suggest a learning and doing process, the word talmid is a Hebrew term that describes a becoming process. Talmidim desire to become just like their rabbi. It is more than the practical application of the knowledge gained. It is more than taking actions based upon our understanding of his teachings. A talmid of Rabbi Jesus will have a heart after the Father, be growing to reflect the very character of Jesus and be gaining the mind and attitudes of Christ.

For those a rabbi accepted, the job of a follower was to become just like him. It was not just to know what the rabbi knew, but to be what the rabbi was.

On the Sabbath, all of the rabbis from the insulas of the town (often five or more rabbis with hundreds of people in attendance) would gather in the synagogue to conversationally consider the appointed text of that Sabbath day. There would be a reading or two from the Torah and/or Tanakh, and the reader could share a brief testimony regarding the scripture selections for the day. Then the people would listen to the rabbis discuss the text so as to enlighten them with their thoughts on the historical context, likely using related text, each including their interpretations - with respectful consideration of differing perspectives a common element.

With several rabbis present, no one rabbi could steer the people in an unhealthy direction over time. Because of Beth Sefhir most people were Torah literate.

Interestingly, it was culturally acceptable for anyone present to add to the discussion, request clarification in a related text, provide a testimony or even disagree with something that had been shared. In this way, the collective wisdom of all the people was available for consideration by all the people. In this way, faith was made more personal.

In this way, children might hear a testimony from their uncle; or a grandfather their son; and in so doing create the opportunity to discuss it personally together later – expanding upon the learning and adding depth to what was shared.

In conversational style, God could send in his Encouragers, Disruptors or Correctors to contribute to the discussions and raise up issues and scripture for community deliberation. It was this setup that made it possible for Jesus to speak in any synagogue on any Sabbath. This is also one of the reasons that young Jesus was able to speak and amaze so many of those present – before he ever started his three-year ministry.

This, too, helps to explain why Andrew, Peter, James and John immediately dropped their nets and followed him when he called them (Matthew 4:18-22, Luke 5:1-11). All four were raised in the small fishing town of Bethsaida, probably played together, and must have witnessed young Jesus together in synagogue conversations on Sabbaths during the years prior!

Maybe more importantly regarding these four, what does it say about Jesus that he went to them and called them?!!! Remember, aspiring talmidim would customarily be required to ask the rabbi if they may follow him. What Jesus was saying to them was, “I believe you can be like me! Come! Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men!” Near the end of his ministry, he reminded them of this, “You did not choose me, but I chose you.” (John 15:16)

He tells modern day believers that he believes in us, too, still saying, “Go, make talmidim of all nations...”

The lone teacher setup is a heady situation that risks people becoming teacher followers rather than talmidim of Jesus. With several rabbis present, no one rabbi could steer the people in an unhealthy direction over time. In conversational style, God could send in his Encouragers, Disruptors or Correctors to contribute to the discussions and raise up issues and scripture for community deliberation. It was this setup that made it possible for Jesus to speak in any synagogue on any Sabbath.

Two thousand years later, we have lost the context of this and many other portions of scripture. Because we are not from that era, we have also lost the images those words would immediately evoke culturally in their listeners.

When Jesus said go and make talmidim of all nations, he did not say go and teach people Beth Sefhir and Beth Midrash so that they could practically apply the information to their lives, he said to go help people become just like him!

A talmid of Rabbi Jesus will have a heart after the Father, be growing to reflect the very character of Jesus and be gaining the mind and attitudes of Christ.

If we will become just like Jesus, the making of talmidim will require individual conversational time in ongoing life-on-life discussion. Not forsaking the fellowship, a talmid will also be associated with some sort of group of talmidim - continually discussing how to live the life of a talmid. Not only that, but how to help others understand what it means to live a life pleasing to God as described in the Old and New Testaments. This bears repeating:

When Jesus said go and make talmidim of all nations, he did not say go and teach people Beth Sefhir and Beth Midrash, he said to go help them become just like him! As with Jesus, the making of talmidim requires individual conversational time in life-on-life discussion, though a talmid will also be associated with a group of talmidim.

Though Jesus taught thousands from a boat or a mountainside, the teaching that changed the world started both as a group and individually with the twelve. I wonder how many of the twelve were eventually involved in ongoing life-on-life conversations with the 70, and how many of the 70 were involved in life-on-life conversations with the 500? I wonder how often it would happen that an inquiring mind could not ask their question of Jesus because he was so surrounded by others trying to do the same. I wonder how often they would then elect to ask their question of one of his talmidim, thereby initiating a life-on-life opportunity for them: “Hey, John, you are one of his guys, what does Jesus say, or maybe, what does Jesus think about this.....?”

What I do know, is that Jesus was not involved in ongoing life-on-life conversations with all of the 70 or the 500. Just like for you, there is simply not enough time in the day! More importantly, how many cannot get to you and eventually give up on asking their questions because there is no one else to ask? Without a high level of visibility and recognition of who your 12 are, how many walk away – and we lose our chance to grow them? If your 12 are frequently speaking in the weekly conversational opportunities, the inquirer will far more easily start with one of them if they cannot get to you, as in the above example.

Moreover, if you have described to your congregation that your 12 are highly capable of pastoring people through the troubles of life, and that you will be Connecting those that approach you with one of them - you will only have the 12 with whom to focus. Then, like Moses (Exodus 18:13-27), any additional load will come almost entirely from those your 12 have first screened, vetted or have previously attempted to support.

Clearly, Jesus' way was to make talmidim who would make talmidim. Do you have twelve or so that get that kind of time with you? Do you add to their numbers each year as they participate with you to develop more talmidim? The 70, and then the 500? The church leaders I know who do have been sending highly impactful service minded talmidim into their communities as yeast, salt and light for decades – and as they serve those in need, they use those opportunities to make more talmidim!

The Bible was written to the people of that day. It was not written to us, it was written to them and for us. Like the people of Jesus' day who knew the Torah and maybe even the whole Tanakh (the Old Testament), our people need help in grasping the depth and context of the people of the biblical era to better live a life pleasing to God today! For though they had been to Beth Sefir and Beth Midrash, the apostles still needed the same kind of help that our people do to become talmidim.

We admonish people to read their Bibles each day, and we teach them what the Bible says each week, but many are having difficulty with understanding the how. Like his talmidim, we need to have the life of the Christ opened up to us in context if we will comprehend the how of living the God-led life - with hearts after our Father, eyes that see and ears that hear. Otherwise, without individual conversational time, we are causing them to be always seeing, but never perceiving. (Matthew 13:14, Isaiah 6:9, Mark 4:12)

Like the two who encountered Jesus conversationally on the road to Emmaus, their hearts will burn as the scriptures are opened up to them. Jesus availed himself for 40 days after his resurrection to open up the scriptures to his followers. He connected the scattered references to him found in the Tanakh, identified the hundreds of prophecies about himself that he fulfilled, and clarified the story (his-story) so that they in turn could do the same for others. And us for still others as well.

Like the story of Philip and the Eunuch, people need to have the scriptures opened up to them if they will comprehend what they are reading.

Like the story of Priscilla and Aquila pulling Apollos to the side for the deeper understanding, how will we support the passionate in passing along the whole Bible, context and all? Like Apollos, who eventually went to Achaia and powerfully refuted the Jews in public, will our passionate people be fully prepared to go?

Much of what our present-day leaders do on Sundays preaches scripture so as to provide us head knowledge for life application. This is the individualistic Hellenistic approach born in the Constantine era, not the talmidic approach for becoming just like our Rabbi Jesus. The USA was not birthed by those from the line of Constantine, it was birthed by the talmidic families of God who escaped Europe in pursuit of freedom. Unfortunately, more and more have adopted the Constantine preaching path and process over the past 100 years.

Looking back, this just seemed to make more sense as our communities grew from small towns and villages of people who knew each other, into cities of the faceless and nameless! Just like Europe, littered with huge empty cathedrals, we have fallen victim to our lack of understanding of how to scale in the family of God. According to ChurchLeadership.org, every year more than 4000 churches close their doors compared to just over 1000 new church starts. On average we are losing a net of eight churches each day!

At the city scale, our sermons have lost the conversational synagogue approach of that day. One of the reasons is because we are overwhelmed at the concept of individually teaching so many via life-on-life conversations: an impossible burden! Is it not now time to train the 12 and the 70 that we might have a chance with the 500? It was enough for Jesus...

Without ongoing life-on-life conversations individually, how can we expect them to learn how to live a life pleasing to God as a talmid?

Jesus was not involved in ongoing life-on-life conversations with all of the 70 or 500. Just like for you, there is simply not enough time in the day! Clearly, Jesus' way was to make talmidim who would make talmidim. Please, ask God to identify for you the first twelve or so that will begin to get that kind of group and individual time with you. Then add to their numbers each year as they then participate with you to develop more and more talmidim. The 70, and then the 500. The church leaders I know who have been doing this have been sending highly impactful service-minded talmidim into their communities as yeast, salt and light for decades – and are making more and more talmidim!

I believe that this Tradition of Lecture, was passed down to the 3rd and the 4th generation in the USA from roughly a hundred years ago as our small towns and villages of people who knew each other grew into nameless and faceless cities, and that this is the biggest reason that the church has been in decline for so very many decades. While it is an indictment of the ways of our seminaries, Bible colleges, pastors, teachers and parenting down through the generations that our numbers have fallen off so drastically, the lecture model was initially a logical sounding seed Satan sowed in Deception that we simply did not understand!

En masse, we tend to give people the facts and the logic and fight to persuade them for saving faith and helpful actions. Then, after baptism, continue our fact-filled logical Hellenistic approach with weekly self-help Bible teaching and encouragements to serve. As we keep their brains engaged in thinking it all through - without ongoing life-on-life opportunities in which to ask their questions, and lost in their heads - many will walk away. Many have walked away, and so our families and nation are falling apart.

We would do well to reconsider our tradition of individuals teaching to gatherings by lecture. Rather, let's afford people conversational iron sharpening iron opportunities as Jesus and the apostles did. In the next chapter, we will discuss a method that will allow us to safely do so.

What if we were to change our approach so as to better facilitate hearts after God with talmidim conversationally? What if we adopted the method the Father prepared in advance for Jesus in the synagogues of The Triangle so that all people can be involved in personal conversational learning each week? What if our 12 were sufficiently trained to support the 70 and them the 500?

What if we were to instead go into our communities like Jesus went, to pique the curiosity of the people such that some came to our Sunday gatherings for conversational learning? What if the kind of teaching we do now on Sundays happened instead in our community centers, our parks, our marketplaces, our homeless encampments and on our street corners? What if denominationally disparate groups of pastor/teachers advertised a day each month where they would take turns using their current Sunday teaching gifts for several hours together in the local community center? What if our target audience was as Jesus' target audience was - and was supported there by each of our congregations' 12, 70 and 500?

What if the assimilated talmidim used these opportunities to invite people to the monthly community gatherings? What if that led people to come to our Sunday gatherings to conversationally learn how to live a life pleasing to God?

What if our marketing simply used the ongoing theme of "How To Live A Life Pleasing To God!"? What if we interspersed two or three of the nearly 100 on-location video teachings of Ray Vander Laan that our people might experience the Bible in its historical context? (That The World May Know <https://www.thatttheworldmayknow.com>)

If you're a megachurch, what if the Sunday gatherings began in the auditorium and then broke out into the smaller rooms where five or six of the 500 could lead conversational discussion with the groups in each room? $500 \div 6 = 83$ potential rooms where this could happen each week. What if our conversational small group time mid-week was led by more than one of the 500 in the Co-Leadership style described in Leading?

As is also described in Leading, if we will set the ground rules for respectful conversation (as will be briefly referenced again in the next chapter) even the most intense Sunday group discussions with the lost may be kept safe.

Chapter Three

How To Live A Life Pleasing To God

Go, make talmidim. Don't just baptize them, preach to them, and direct them into small groups of ill-prepared leaders - train them conversationally like Jesus did! Like his apostles did!

How do you make disciples? Talmidim, not students, not apprentices, not people who take in information and then apply it practically (often errantly) to their life. Not disciples who call themselves disciples while leaning on their own understanding but are clearly not talmidim. Talmidim. Like Jesus made talmidim. People who are consumed by their love of the Lord, his text and who know him and his ways intimately.

What is the evidence of your success in developing talmidim? The character and attributes of a talmid are not as difficult to identify as one might think...

What is the biggest obstacle they have to overcome? I can tell you that it is known, but also that it is very rare to find teaching on it. We identify it in great scriptural detail in the Life portion of the free book Life, Love and Leading. We describe how to overcome it, and include a case study of those who are accomplishing it in the Leading portion. I can also tell you that we began adopting this obstacle almost immediately after expulsion from Eden. What is it?

Our belief in Hierarchy, Authority and the right to Control people.

As long as we believe in these, we will fail to produce talmidim like Jesus produced talmidim.

The evidence of a true talmid? It is examined scripturally in Life. Life is a Bible study that has been used effectively for years with individuals and in small group studies with people from all walks of life. Summarizing that evidence here, you will see adherence to:

- Dominion over the earth, but not over people. (Genesis 1:26-30)
 - Give us a king. (1 Samuel 8:4-22)
 - Jesus said it shall not be so among you. (Mark 10:42-45)
- The Ten Commandments (Exodus 20:3-17)

- Love the Lord your God with all your heart, soul, mind and strength, your neighbor as yourself and one another as I have loved you. (Mark 12:30-31, John 13:34-35)
- “Love” active in service. (John 12:26, Mark 9:35, Mark 10:45, Galatians 5:13, Matthew 20:26-27, 1 Samuel 12:24)
- The attitudes of the Beatitudes: Jesus’ attitudes. (Matthew 5:2-12)
- Fruit of the Spirit language and actions. (Galatians 5:22-24)
- The Unity, character and attributes of John 17.

God’s desire is to lead us through each day in one-ness with him, taught by him, to grow us to reflect his character and attributes (John 17) to others more and more, little by little, success by success, glory by glory (2 Corinthians 3:18); conformed to the image of his Son (Romans 8:29); that none should perish (2 Peter 3:9). Jesus did this conversationally and by his servant actions - not by preaching alone. The making of a talmid requires conversational time and service individually, life-on-life. As he did with the twelve and as they then did with others.

Over the last 3 decades I have been watching God multiply those he gave myself and others go on to expand his kingdom - life-on-life - with others still.

Life has been used effectively for years with individuals and in small group studies with people from all walks of life: the impoverished, the homeless, present & former prison inmates, struggling believers, wayward believers, in marital & pre-marital counseling, with friends, parents, pastors and teachers. Life helps us think about our conversations together with hearts after the Father, the mind and attitudes of Christ, language and actions that produce fruit of the Spirit, and love that proves we care and are his: “A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another: just as I have loved you, you also are to love one another. By this all people will know that you are my talmidim, if you have love for one another.”

As with Jesus, we will have groups of people with whom we discuss the kingdom of God, but also with whom we will then spend time individually, conversationally and in service. Endeavoring to become just like Jesus, the evidence of our success or failure will be talmidim who more and more:

- Know God’s voice and follow. (John 10:27)
- Creatively collaborate and participate in accomplishing the will of the Father. (1 Kings 22:19-23)

- Only say and do what the Father gives them to say and do. (John 5:19, John 12:49-50, John 14:10)
- Are eliminating Anger, Hierarchy and Manipulate To Control from their lives. (John 17)
- Are overcoming the temptations and desires of the flesh, their sacrifice nothing compared to Jesus' sacrifice on our behalf. (Romans 1, Colossians 3, Galatians 5, Leviticus 18, Ephesians 5:1-21, James 4:1-12, 1 Peter 2:11-12, Ephesians 2:3, 1 John 2:3-6)
- Are becoming mature and effective laborers: the 12, the 70 and the 500.

Jesus was willing to start with the 12 and expand from there. I know prevailing pastors without a church split in 4 decades who have taken this approach and who now have talmidim making talmidim who are making talmidim. Their approach is summarized in Life, Love and Leading.

The Leading portion of Life, Love and Leading discusses beliefs that keep church leaders from taking this approach and, as they continue on as before, therefore scuttle their own efforts to scale - again and again and again.

My wife and I have moved many times over the last 45+ years and have therefore attended many churches. As it turns out, God placed us in these that we might observe and have intimate knowledge of the cause of four church splits and, in others, see how his ways avoided them and grew his Kingdom. In each case the splits were caused by hierarchical pastors warring against flesh and blood. In the others, which flourished without splits for four and five decades, iron sharpened iron utilizing the collective wisdom of all in Unity and respect.

By rejecting the use of Hierarchy, Control and the use of voting for expediency – they avoided having winners and losers and therefore the sowing of the seeds of us/them and we/they Division.

Conflict seems natural and unavoidable in the World Operating System since having winners and losers is just a part of life! Be aware, we use phrases like, “Time is of the essence!” to justify decisive Authoritarian action and/or the call for a vote: “Something must be done! Lead, follow or get out of the way!”.

Synergy finds its foundation in the organizational climate. As long as we utilize polity and organization under the military chain of command, we will be unable to synergistically operate in God's Unity Operating System and Structure - with us as body parts and Christ the only Head.

There is a way to operate everything in The Unity Operating System and Structure. I have seen it work in businesses, churches and non-profits - as have other consultants and authors. God is blessing those of us in these churches, businesses and organizations with synergy and Unity as we operate as follows.

For more background scripture and detail please see both Life and Leading. Summarizing the above two portions together, true talmidim and their entities will evidence:

- Dominion over the earth, but not over people. (Genesis 1:26-30)
 - Give us a king. (1 Samuel 8:4-22)
 - Jesus said it shall not be so among you. (Mark 10:42-45)
- The Ten Commandments (Exodus 20:3-17)
- Love the Lord your God with all your heart, soul, mind and strength, your neighbor as yourself and one another as I have loved you. (Mark 12:30-31, John 13:34-35)
- "Love" active in service. (John 12:26, Mark 9:35, Mark 10:45, Galatians 5:13, Matthew 20:26-27, 1 Samuel 12:24)
- The attitudes of the Beatitudes: Jesus' attitudes. (Matthew 5:2-12)
- Fruit of the Spirit language and actions. (Galatians 5:22-24)
- The Unity, character and attributes of John 17.
- Knowing God's voice and be following him. (John 10:27)
- Creative collaboration and participation in accomplishing the will of the Father. (1 Kings 22:19-23)
- Only saying and doing what the Father gives them to say and do. (John 5:19, John 12:49-50, John 14:10)
- The elimination of Anger, Hierarchy and Manipulate To Control behaviors from their lives. (John 17)
- The overcoming of the temptations and desires of the flesh, their sacrifice nothing compared to Jesus' sacrifice on our behalf. (Romans 1, Colossians 3, Galatians 5, Leviticus 18, Ephesians 5:1-21, James 4:1-12, 1 Peter 2:11-12, Ephesians 2:3, 1 John 2:3-6)
- That they are becoming mature and effective laborers more and more: the 12, the 70 and the 500.

What if a portion of your approach was to put the above up as reference on walls, websites and for use in periodic review during group time? Alongside the statement of operating values below? (See the Leading portion of Life, Love and Leading for scriptural support and detail.) Using these and the approach that Pat Lencione clearly describes in The Advantage, even the most intense discussions with the lost may be kept safe:

We are committed to:

- One-ness: Him in us and us in Him
- Acts of Love & Intercession
- Attitudes consistent with the Beatitudes
- Fruit of the Spirit Language & Actions
- Connecting & Inviting
- Relational Mutually Accountable Co-Discipleship
- Development of Balanced Director/Reconciler Teams in Co-Leadership
- Leadership Teams that Do Not Have or Use Hierarchy/Authority
- Unity/Unanimity in Decisions & Actions
- Groups of Teams and Teams of Groups
- Leadership Development at All Levels
- Advisory Forums at ALL levels
 - Collective discernment of the Input of ALL People
 - Has God brought us a Leader Out Of Nowhere, now here?
- Facilitating Spirit-Led Self-Selection of Service

What if Sundays became a conversational day around a list of related scriptures? If so, you would be able to facilitate discussion without any significant preparation time. If you did, you could replace the time needed for sermon preparation each week with conversational life-on-life time with each of your leaders - with your 12. Perhaps providing them the free Life, Love and Leading books as reference material. What if you made such progress with your 12 that you could add another 12 each year, such that some were going out as others were coming in?

What if they then began doing the same with others still, such that at some point you would have 12, 70, and even 500 ready and able to be present at your own “Go” in a community center, park, marketplace, parking lot, homeless camp or even just a street corner? What if they were able to be scattered among the people there like salt, each grain reflecting his light, illuminating their path home...?

What if – in twos - they were to then begin group gatherings with others still? What if each of the two new talmidic leaders also initiated individual conversational life-on-life opportunities with the individuals in the group – as you did? First into your congregation, then into the world? Explaining to them what a disciple really is and sending them out, using their local Community Service And Support Network to find their fit in community service? Where they can serve while also being yeast, salt and light? (See the Leading portion of Life, Love and Leading for scriptural support and detail, especially the Epilogue.)

If each one will reach just one each year, we will change our world.

As is described in detail in Leading, if we will set the ground rules for respectful conversation using the “Evidence of a Talmid” and “We are committed to:” lists above - (especially the attitudes of the Beatitudes and fruit of the Spirit language and actions) and are further prepared by the Pat Lencione book The Advantage, - even the most intense Sunday group discussions with the lost may be kept safe.

We would do well to reconsider our tradition of an individual teaching to our gatherings by lecture. Rather, as did the synagogues of The Triangle in Jesus’ day, let’s afford people conversational iron sharpening iron opportunities. Our only requirement should be that they do so with hearts after the Father, humbly postured in the attitudes of the Beatitudes, and that they share thoughts in true fruit of the Spirit language and actions. If we will do so, we just might see our communities begin to flourish once again.

Chapter Four

We Do Not Battle Against Flesh And Blood

Church leaders are frustrated. For too many, teaching has become a battle or a surrender. Jesus would have neither. His teaching produced thoughtful dialogue. His was not a commentary on the ways of the world, rather his enlightened us on how to overcome the world and fulfill the Torah. “How to live a life pleasing to God”. He showed us how.

I frequently hear church leaders describe an “us versus them” in which they are battling against the very flesh and blood we are to be battling against the principalities and powers for!

Mark 2:17 I came not to call the righteous, but sinners. Luke 5:32 I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.”

Some describe themselves as warriors protecting their sheep, but if you first have 12, then 70 and then 500 well trained talmidim, they will have also been prepared by the Good Shepherd to identify wolves, how to approach them, how to inform them and how to forewarn them. True talmidim don’t need your protection, and if the immature sheep are continually being taught how to identify the differing behaviors between sheep and wolves as in the previous chapter, they will be ready and protected by this teaching and by the power of the Holy Spirit.

We will have far greater success in calling the sinners to repentance if we, the 12, the 70 and the 500, will do so individually in life-on-life conversations.

Too frequently I hear teaching from the front that rebukes, but why must the healthy hear your rebuke? It is, of course, because preaching to the masses is your only chance to reach those beyond your touch. Though wolves may be present, why should you expect to reach them? And if the dangerously misinformed approach you or you them to request individual time, how could you possibly meet with all of them? Can you instead offer them one of the 12, the 70 or the 500 to meet individually to discuss their questions and challenges? The 12, 70 and 500 are the critical portions of what we are to be about! Are you about it? Do you have 12 true talmidim in leadership with whom you have a plan for reaching the 70 and the 500? Jesus had a Judas, so too you also may expect some failures.

As you continue on after the 12, some will obviously be more difficult than others, but if they are “here”, we are to attempt to train them through ongoing life-on-life conversations. Though a portion will eventually reject and run, we (with our 12, our 70 and our 500) are to remain relational and available as they consider their options.

I cannot know all things, so God brings me help in the form of people and information. My help is in the name of the Lord, and many are passionate leaders-of-leaders. The Enemy tries to separate us by convincing us to ignore strong-willed leaders. But they know some things we do not know, and we need all of the perspectives we can get. (see Leading: Working With Alphas)

Some will be like Peter, Judas, Nicodemus, the Rich Young Ruler, the religious leaders of the day and the pre-Christian Pharisee Saul. We are not to drive them away, like Jesus we are to point them to the Father while answering their questions and concerns! In close proximity to them, speaking to them with the attitudes of the Beatitudes and in fruit of the Spirit language and actions - they will find faith or they will run. That is their choice!

Peter was opinionated not divisive - and passionate - like most of our strong-willed leaders. We just think they are divisive because they are not submitting to (or maybe not acknowledging of) our hierarchical position of Authority and the respect that we believe we are entitled to by virtue of that position.

This is a syllogism and FAE that may only be supported by the premise of Authority.

We often use syllogism and FAEs to maintain control over direction:

A syllogism (an inferred conclusion) is a kind of logical argument that applies deductive reasoning to arrive at a conclusion based upon two or more premises that are asserted or assumed to be true.

However, when one premise is the requirement for Hierarchy and Authority, every conclusion that follows will be at least partially false. As we act upon these subtly false deductions, our own subsequent behaviors may be more easily rationalized - the honest result of believing the Enemy's foundational Authority Deception.

Fundamental Attribution Errors occur when we jump to conclusions about a person's motivation to behave in an observable way. FAEs block Unity as we attribute ill intentions to another's behavior – thereby helping us to rationalize conflict avoidance strategies. The synergistic potential between complementary personalities is often scuttled by this deception, causing synergistically diverse Body Parts to reject Connectivity.

Others will simply be well-intentioned Traditionalists, serving traditions in the belief that these are how they are to support the body of Christ. Not so bad on their own, works may become idols that they serve, doing “good” and therefore feeling good about themselves, their identity and their eternity. Something like faith without works is dead, they feel they need these places of service to feel right about themselves.

In a congregation that is taught en masse, there will not be 12, 70 or 500 available for the Traditionalists to receive individual life-on-life time from - to understand their error – and will therefore go on entrenching their works beliefs into the lives of those they do communicate with!

In Meyers-Briggs, these traditionalist personality types are the Guardians that make up 46% of our population. When we better understand how to approach this half of our congregants, we will better integrate and synergize their portion of The Body for more productive service - as they support our leaders in service together that is transformative.

Until they become talmidim, the various Traditionalists serving the congregation through altar, music, accoutrements, lawn & landscape, parking, etc. will, over time, become the Traditionalists who block your path to growing the kingdom of God. That they are not talmidim will be evidenced by cliques that are more social than invitational and transformational. Over the decades, absent the life-on-life involvement of you, your 12, your 70 and your 500 - you can expect the Enemy to do anything but use it for good – though the work is getting done.

When talmidim are being developed life-on-life, these traditions are allowed to evolve or be eliminated according to the leading of the Holy Spirit, for the benefit of the training and retaining of talmidim in development. When these become mature in their understanding, they will be a part of the development of more and more talmidim in the future. Otherwise, as the 12, 70 and the 500 pass on into eternity, who will train the next generation?

A dwindling congregation is symptomatic of a malaise, a short-sightedness, a misunderstanding of appropriate system & structure, and more than anything else – that individuals are not being developed life-on-life to know and understand how to live a life pleasing to God. For if they were, their numbers would be growing as talmidim did what talmidim are to do.

Life, Love and Leading were written to support you with individuals in life-on-life time, their individual time in worshipful dialogue with Adonai (prayer) and the foundational operating system and structure God has provided us for doing it in Unity as a fellowship of believers, a congregation of the committed and talmidim who go rather than just come.

When it is common to hear our encouragement to request and engage individually in life-on-life conversations, many people will come out of hiding. Otherwise, alone and hidden, they will continue to be vulnerable to the Enemy's Deception and be weakened by the wearing downs and tearing downs of life. Absent the Joy of the Lord who is our strength, most will eventually crumble and fall.

As visitors recognize that we are not a place doing business, but one where more and more are living lives pleasing to God in the Family of God, the talmidim within our sphere of influence will be more and more successful in drawing in others for training. More than preaching, we will see that the kingdom is growing because of talmidim who are making talmidim in life-on-life services.

This necessarily includes training up children in the way they should go, that when they grow old they do not depart from it.

Are a portion of your 70 and 500 training children to know his voice? Do you think that this is too scary to do? Do you simply teach them Bible stories and hope that they learn it from their parents?

The Barna group reveals that, on average, children now develop their worldview by age 13 and that 94% of decisions made for Christ happen before the age of 18!

We really need to begin supporting parents in the growing of talmidim who know his voice and follow from childhood!

“Mommy, Daddy, did you see that?” “Yes, Johnny, that was you and God working together! Didn’t it feel great to help those people like that?!!! Johnny, you’re old enough now for me to help you understand something more about God and how he helps us know what to do and what not to do. Do you remember the other day when you and Bobby both wanted the same toy and you decided to let him play with it first? And last week when...”

“Susie, when you are angry you can always ask God to help you calm down. Did you notice the feeling you had when you were angry? I’m so proud of you that you didn’t give in to it!” God helped you to overcome it! Did you notice that you were being helped to decide?

“Tommy, when we are working together with God we will never do anything to harm anyone else.” If you ever feel like you are going to, ask God to help you overcome it. He is always right there with you, wherever you go, to help you...

“Sally, what do you want to be when you grow up? You know how we have been talking about how God loves you and is talking to you with his quiet voice to help you? Well, he wants to help you with what you will be when you grow up, too. If you will talk with him about your hopes and dreams, he will help you with your choices. As you talk with him to understand, he will make your life better than you can possibly imagine.

Chapter Five

Who Do You Say That You Are?

As is described and supported in great scriptural detail in Life and Leading, God's operating system functions in Unity and produces good fruit, fruit of the Spirit. The Enemy's operating system facilitates self-focus, Hierarchy, Authority and Division - producing in-fighting, politics, the development of power, and Corruption.

Separated from God outside of Eden, the Enemy Adam and Eve chose to believe had ongoing access. Engraining the Deception as old as time itself, he has forever since been facilitating a foundational Deception that we need to take Authority over people. His hierarchical World Operating System has now become so deeply engrained across the world culturally and throughout history that we do not even realize it is from whence chaos grows.

Scripture identifies that Christ is the Head, our only authority, and he gives us leadership roles that collectively facilitate Wisdom in choosing together – producing good fruit and Unity among his people. As explained in Leading, even the international consultants for large Fortune 500 multi-national corporations have come around to abandoning authoritarian models based upon the hierarchical military chain of command and are instead teaching the use of God's Unity Operating System – and they have been proving that God's way works best. It's clear, the use of Authority is out!

In a search for the English word authority in an interlinear Bible, what we find in the original language is that it is only ever used as it applies to that of God or government. The only exception in which God's people are described as having authority is in Matthew 10:1.

Matthew 10:1

Jesus called his twelve disciples to him and gave them authority to drive out impure spirits and to heal every disease and sickness.

The word authority has sometimes been added elsewhere by well-meaning Bible translators, but it is not in the original text. In the example below, the ESV includes it but the NIV does not. Though theologians say that the ESV is very reliable (and I agree), this is a case where it is in err. Interlinear Bibles confirm the NIV (and others) to be accurate in this. Try an interlinear search on the internet and see for yourself.

3 John 1:9 ESV

I have written something to the church, but Diotrephes, who likes to put himself first, does not acknowledge our authority.

3 John 1:9 NIV

I wrote to the church, but Diotrephes, who loves to be first, will not welcome us.

His ways are Unity first, inclusive and transparent. The Enemy's way is to divide and conquer to block transparency and gain Control - and that is how he gets what he wants between us – Division. Synergy is a great risk to his schemes, so he tells us that we are the one with the title and position of Pastor, Teacher, Apostle, Prophet, Evangelist, and that the office and the responsibilities of that office are ours – so we tell others that they need to recognize that and back off. But God has warned us that these are not to be our ways. For if they are, they will tempt us toward separation, isolation and individuation.

Though in various settings over the years I have been called Pastor, Teacher, Apostle, Prophet and Evangelist out of respect, I have always asked to be called only by my name. Otherwise, I will be tempted to use that title for my personal benefit.

Matthew 23:8-12

8 But you are not to be called rabbi, for you have one teacher, and you are all brothers. 9 And call no man your father on earth, for you have one Father, who is in heaven. 10 Neither be called instructors, for you have one instructor, the Christ. 11 The greatest among you shall be your servant. 12 Whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and whoever humbles himself will be exalted.

The only instances of a capital letter at the front of the words pastor, teacher, apostle, prophet or evangelist in the Bible refer to Jesus. When did we decide that we should call them offices or positions and include capital letters as was only done for the Christ? Pastor, Teacher, Apostle, Prophet, Evangelist, Senior Pastor, CEO Pastor, COO Pastor, Reverend, Dr., MDiv, Teaching Pastor, etc. The Bible says that Paul was an apostle and Elijah a prophet, but there are no capital letters calling them Apostle Paul or Prophet Elijah. Shall we elevate ourselves above them?

There is nothing wrong with identifying Body Parts structurally as long as they are simply categories such as teaching pastor, deacon, youth pastor, outreach leader, etc.

Otherwise, the additional danger in the use of titles and offices is that the congregants within our sphere of influence, living in a world of titles and Authority, will begin to lift us up over them. This is a very heady situation in which, having been placed above them by them, we just might accept their adulations and slide back into functioning with Leverage and Hierarchically. After all, it is what folks with these trainings expect of us!

We are failing together – subtly. We compete, debate, posture, suppress, rationalize, minimize, triangulate. Eyes don't see, ears don't hear. When two leaders meet to discuss a topic of mutual interest what happens? Positional circumstances determine if one holds the upper hand, and if so, they will expect to keep it (Authoritarian posture). Whoever thinks they have the greater experience will posture to imply that. Each will MANeuver to maintain or improve their position – just as the apostles were doing that day.

Mark 9:33-35

33 And they came to Capernaum. And when he was in the house he asked them, "What were you discussing on the way?" 34 But they kept silent, for on the way they had argued with one another about who was the greatest. 35 And he sat down and called the twelve. And he said to them, "If anyone would be first, he must be last of all and servant of all."

Who was greatest among them could only have been important in the determination of who had the most power, and therefore the ability to use it. They were trying to determine the hierarchy of who had Authority over whom.

What if one of them is the Senior Pastor of the church the other attends? What are the tendencies? What is the likelihood for a Unified conclusion?

Similar in giftedness, similar in intellect, similar in capacity, differing in experience and with thousands of years of culture teaching us that there can only be one boss – it is likely that there will be posturing. It is likely to be said, “I am the Pastor.”, or, “As Pastor I...” It is what is done. But God’s way is better.

When we are mature, balanced and United with him in our hearts, souls and minds, we may more effectively communicate and discern the collective wisdom God offers us together. Practice utilizing fruit of the Spirit language and actions that you more and more become a talmid of Jesus, and therefore a more effective communicator doing the will of the Father. Kindly, Gently, Perseveringly, Peaceably and with Goodness. As we learn to live with hearts after the Father and in the attitudes of the Beatitudes (Jesus’ attitudes), this posture and humility will prepare us for fruit of the Spirit language and actions in each and every interaction.

As is described in Life and Leading, we must learn his ways of Relational Mutual Accountability in Co-Discipleship if we will sustainably Connect our brothers and sisters to The Body. As is further described in Life, it might accurately be said that the depth of our trust and understanding will bring us to the depth of our faith in one another. And that the depth of our love will be based upon these. Develop trust in Relational Mutual Accountability and Co-Discipleship - and then watch God work.

His ways are Unity first, inclusive and transparent. The Enemy’s way is to take Control, perhaps by Divide and Conquer, for the blocking of transparency - and that is how he gets what he wants between us – Division. Synergy is a great risk to his schemes.

Our nation is deeply divided, with many angry “Christians” part of the problem, Pastors included. Romans 1, Colossians 3 and Galatians 5 are but a few of the references that tell us that what we are doing is what we are not to be doing - and that those who (continue to) do such things will not inherit the kingdom of God. (Galatians 5:21)

For those who might just be willing, are we available to lead them into a greater depth of understanding of his ways, a more intimate walk with him, for fruit of the Spirit conversations in the attitudes of the Beatitudes, and in the growth and change described in 2 Corinthians 3:14-18? They will otherwise continue on as blind as the religious of that day.

If we want to win souls, our only chance is by making God's ways our ways. Let us endeavor to offer the talmidic approach, becoming more and more like Jesus, that we might grow hearts after our Father.

Chapter Six

Servant Talmidim

Clearly, as is identified with exhaustive supporting scriptural detail in Life, Jesus only said and did what the Father gave him to say and do. As talmidim we are to do the same. His heart was after the Father and his desire was to do all of his will. Jesus made it clear to us that the Father's will is that we go make talmidim of all nations, not just teach them Beth Sephir and Beth Midrash (in our case, the whole Bible). Therefore, like Jesus, our service will open the door to sharing our testimony about the love of God for all humanity.

We will not be successful in making talmidim if we are not teaching and training individual talmid to hear God's voice and be one with him, him in us and us in him - and follow in the Father's will for their lives. Serving where he sends them, their testimony will be sufficient for whoever he puts in their path. Each one reaching one, the world will be changed. Each one reaching one each year, we will more quickly accomplish the Great Commission.

It is not our job to send them anywhere, our job is to make talmidim who will follow the leading of the Holy Spirit to where they are being sent. While church projects that organize to serve the community are a part of what we are to be doing, the growing of individual talmid who are going where God sends them is primary.

As talmidim grow in their understanding, they will become sheep who know God's voice and follow. As they serve in relationship with others, with hearts after the Father and the mind and attitudes of Christ, we and they may expect that the Spirit will lead them into what the Father would have them say and/or do in any situation.

As salt is scattered in this way across our communities, every grain reflecting the light of God's love, more and more people will be led into lifesaving relationship. However, the critical first step is that our churches become talmidic training centers that send. Not just places where people go each week, or as surveys indicate, only occasionally during the year.

Do you believe that God has created works for all of us in advance (Ephesians 2:10)? Then as you also acknowledge Ephesians 4, telling us that the role of the leader is to equip/prepare/facilitate the people to acts of service, why not be facilitating administrative system & structure that makes it happen!

The Community Service and Support Network

During the last 40 years I have been working to unite God's people to more productive service in their communities. This has included my collaboration with three different national initiatives that hoped to utilize the internet in doing so. They spent millions of dollars in development of the what while missing the point of the who. Much has been learned over the last 40 years, and I am sorry to say that the leaders of these initiatives have been mostly unsuccessful.

Learning from that experience, we have paid for the development of a free web platform designed for the who. What we know is that people may serve a needy cause for a while, but they will remain with causes that touch their heart as they serve rewardingly alongside people with similar passion - synergizing their diverse skillsets. If we will ever align and engage the people in our communities to service that truly transforms, it will be because we have facilitated our people in finding those with whom their passion and interests align. Simply said, we need to flow people and their diverse skillsets to the non-profits that best match their passion and interests.

The site we have developed is a free volunteer Human Resources Department for communities as a whole. It helps people to quickly sort through the myriad of community service options so as to be able to select a personalized passion-aligned service involvement with any church or non-profit. It utilizes Service Opportunity Descriptions that clarify the work and time involved. These are supported by individuals we call Connectors who volunteer their time to vet and Connect people on behalf and in support of a given non-profit. Connectors are passion-aligned individuals who work to help Executive Directors be able to redirect funds from ancillary expenses to increasing the output of mission.

If we will transform our communities, we need to have an aligned organizational vision for our communities that is broader than our individual organizational efforts. We have been failing at this for decades via a variety of well-meaning platforms and programs. Now, sometime in 2024, the Community Service and Support Network will be online at www.CSASNetwork.org with this very simple yet profound approach. The free CSASNetwork site will help people community-wide quickly sort through personalized community service options so as to be able to easily self-select a passion-aligned service involvement with any church or non-profit.

The Community Service and Support Network site will include all that is needed for faithful founders in any city to quickly birth their own local site on the CSASNetwork site. Organized into the 4 Groups and 12 Teams as is described in Leading, any city of any size will be able to birth and maintain access for free. Everything needed to support local founders in the development of the initial 4 Groups and for expansion into the 12 Teams is being included. The last chapter of Leading, the Epilogue, helps us imagine the great value that utilizing the Community Service and Support Network site offers.

Considering all of our unique callings, we will better Connect people when we provide a Whole Body System & Structure that additionally aids in Self-Selection via a CSASNetwork site. Facilitating Connection by every supporting ligament according to their personal discernment of God's leading, people will less frequently Self-Select out and more often get in and Self-Select to stay in. Accomplish your will, O God!

Chapter Seven

Aligning Your Community In Service That Transforms

In Leading, we imagine the possibilities when tapping into the potential of 20% more people in a given church, and 10% more in a community of 300,000. If you could tap the non-paid potential of these, the Full-Time Equivalents (FTEs) would be worth tens of millions of dollars in equivalent payroll.

The average payroll of an entire city government for a community of 300,000 people may include 1500 people at an approximate cost of $75,000,000. If you could bring an additional 1500 Full-Time Equivalents (FTEs) through engaging more people in Supportive Service what would that be worth? $75,000,000, yes, but it would be worth much more in terms of the lives of the people those additional FTEs would touch. And what would that be worth in your community? Imagine the value of a reduction in crime, violence, poverty, teen pregnancies, illiteracy, unemployment and welfare. This is what the CSASNetwork.org site is all about helping you do.

- 1500 paid staff averaging $50K per year (including benefits) equals $75,000,000 per year and (working 40 hours per week 50 weeks per year) 3,000,000 hours per year.
- 30,000 more people (10% of the population) in service giving 100 hours per year (2 hours/week) equals 3,000,000 hours per year – a value of $75,000,000.

If you developed a culture in your community whereby more people gave an average of just 50 hours per year of effectively engaged service time – what would that be worth in your community? To your community? For your community?

If we are truly leaders of leaders, if he has set us over much, we are the ones responsible to facilitate more engagement from the inactive. If we will do this, it will necessarily require more unpaid high-capacity large-scale leaders (as described in Leading) than we are welcoming now. It will also require an all-encompassing Structure upon which we will make Connections to the whole Body of Christ, Christ as the Head – and life-on-life service and conversations.

Isaiah 43:19

Behold, I am doing a new thing; now it springs forth, do you not perceive it?

For decades now, in cities all across our nation, there have been countless good-faith efforts to involve more people in community-wide collaborative service. The unique Community Service And Support Network approach includes a wealth of information to assist you in supporting these city-wide collaborations. The time is now. The fields are ripe with harvest. But if we will be successful at the community scale, we had better be practicing it ourselves and introducing it in our churches first. Growing talmidim: the 12, the 70 and the 500.

As we develop talmidim who develop talmidim who develop talmidim, we will be the ones who reverse the trend mentioned in the first chapter. As churches become talmidic training centers that send - more and more talmidim will be scattered like salt across our communities in passion aligned service. As each grain reflects the light of God's love, more and more people will be led into lifesaving relationship – and our communities will be restored.

As we end this short primer of Life, Love and Leading, we also summarize for you below what we identified both there and here. These bullet points help to move us more and more toward actualizing talmidim in Adonai-ical Unity that connects ALL body parts by every supporting ligament. Iron sharpening iron, balanced wholistically through the power of the Spirit and informed collectively by the Wisdom of God, we are better able to collectively discern the Father's will for us. We believe these to be God honoring and necessary as we follow him to make his will happen:

True talmidim will evidence:

- Dominion over the earth, but not over people. (Genesis 1:26-30)
 - Give us a king. (1 Samuel 8:4-22)
 - Jesus said it shall not be so among you. (Mark 10:42-45)
- The Ten Commandments (Exodus 20:3-17)

- Love the Lord your God with all your heart, soul, mind and strength, your neighbor as yourself and one another as I have loved you. (Mark 12:30-31, John 13:34-35)
- “Love” active in service. (John 12:26, Mark 9:35, Mark 10:45, Galatians 5:13, Matthew 20:26-27, 1 Samuel 12:24)
- The attitudes of the Beatitudes: Jesus’ attitudes. (Matthew 5:2-12)
- Fruit of the Spirit language and actions. (Galatians 5:22-24)
- The Unity, character and attributes of John 17.
- Knowing God’s voice and be following Him. (John 10:27)
- Creative collaboration and participation in accomplishing the will of the Father. (1 Kings 22:19-23)
- Only saying and doing what the Father gives them to say and do. (John 5:19, John 12:49-50, John 14:10)
- The elimination of Anger, Hierarchy and Manipulate To Control behaviors from their lives. (John 17)
- The overcoming of the temptations and desires of the flesh, their sacrifice nothing compared to Jesus’ sacrifice on our behalf. (Romans 1, Colossians 3, Galatians 5, Leviticus 18, Ephesians 5:1-21, James 4:1-12, 1 Peter 2:11-12, Ephesians 2:3, 1 John 2:3-6)
- That they are becoming mature and effective laborers more and more: the 12, the 70 and the 500.
