

My Way – Frank Sinatra, words revised by Rick Kroeger

And now the end is near
And so I face the final curtain
Dear God, I'll say it clear
I'll state my case of which I'm certain

I've lived a life that's full
I've travelled each and every highway
And more, much more than this
I did it Thy way

Regrets, I've had a few
But then again, too few to mention
I tried to do what You gave me to do
And see it through without exception

Your plans, they charted my course
You lit my path, I didn't know my way
And so, much more than this
You led me Thy way

Yes, there were times, You surely knew
While on Your road, they blasphemed You
But through it all when there was doubt
You were my strength and showed me how
To face it all, You stood me up tall
And we did it Thy way

I've loved, I've laughed, and cried
I've had my fill, my share of hurting
And now, as tears subside
I find it all so amazing

To think we did all that
And may I say, not in a shy way
Oh no, oh no, not me
We did it Thy way

For what is a man, what has he got?
If not Yourself, then he has naught
To say the things he truly feels
Sharing Your Words as one who kneels
The record shows I took the blows
And we did it Thy way

Yes, it was Thy way
