Work for the Week:
How did it go?

You and evangelism

“I have become all things to all men,
that I might by all means save some.
Now this I do for the gospel’s sake,
that I may be partaker of it with you.”
(1 Cor 9:22b-23)

You may be more “hybrid” than you think. By acknowledging that, you might be able to determine how to maximize the various ways you exist in the various environments where you show up.

Be it Resolved:
I can do it!

Resolved: I Can Do It!

“...and lo, I am with you always, even to the end of the age.” (Jesus: Matthew 28:20b)

“But you shall receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you shall be witnesses to Me in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the end of the earth.” (Jesus: Acts 1:8)

Trust the Gospel to be enough

- Promote the many ways that “salvation” can be realized while we live.
- Engage people in a way that respects who, and where, they are.
- Recognize your limitations and learn how to manage, or conquer, them.
- Hybrid does not mean “anything goes.”
- Hybrid does not have to mean hard.

Knowing
when enough
is enough

Knowing when enough is enough

“If the Gospel is not viewed as good news of salvation that has overcome the bad news of sin, then it’s hard to convince anyone of their need to believe the Gospel and be saved.” (Larrin Robertson)

For next week

Work for the Week

1. Learn. Take another look at the 2-3 modes of communication you identified last week. Write any questions or concerns you have for next week.
2. Read. Take a few minutes and read the following article: 5 Digital Evangelism Methods You Should Use in 2021. (NOTE: If you don't want to subscribe or respond to any of the pop-ups on the page, just click on the small 'x' next to the box that pops up.)
3. Plan. As you continue in prayer for the persons/people you will talk with, be sure to pray about their specific situation, condition, matter, etc. This can be the fuel for future conversation.
