

Our purpose planned for God's pleasure.

What has God given you that you believe was for His purpose?

What could you start doing today for God's purpose?

Would you consider that you have a close relationship with God?

What could you do to draw closer to Him?