- 4) Pentecostal churches place emphasis on the story of the disciples receiving the Holy Spirit on the day of Pentecost, when all the disciples spoke in tongues.
- 5) In the Bible, the Greek word charisma is translated as “gifts,” usually referring to miraculous spiritual gifts.
- 6) Charismatic churches place emphasis on miraculous spiritual gifts, but may not call themselves Pentecostal.
- 7) Most Charismatic/Pentecostal churches teach that tongues is the evidence of the baptism of the Holy Spirit.
- 8) Some people say that the miraculous gifts ended with the deaths of the Apostles. That group is called cessationists, because they say the gifts ceased.
- 9) Paul encourages people to speak in tongues, but also encourages those who speak in church to use the common language so everyone will understand.
