

got questions?

christian living

July 22, 2018 • Christian Living 4 - Truth

Scripture References

Genesis 1, 2, 3 • Romans 2:14-15

- 1) A core element of our political disagreement is the definition of "Great."
- 2) Moral relativism is the view that moral judgments are true or false only in relation to some particular culture or historical period.
- 3) 75% of American college professors currently teach that there is no such thing as right and wrong.

Grace Bible Church • Message by Dave Zierenberg
Audio and notes available at www.gbcsl.com

- 4) People claim morals and values are relative, but act as if they believe their personal morals and values are really true.
- 5) The favorite phrase of those who want to be free from moral requirements: "You have no right to judge me!"
- 6) From the denial of moral truth, it's a short step to abandoning scientific truth when it gets in the way of the agenda.
- 7) Christianity claims that we all have a sense of right and wrong built into us, and that is the source of morality.
- 8) People have been conditioned through moral relativism to believe that they have no right to tell someone they're wrong about something.
- 9) Chronological snobbery: The assumption that what we believe is automatically superior to what people used to believe.
- 10) The essential element in the story of the blind men and the elephant is that someone who sees the full truth can bring complete understanding.

got questions?

christian living

July 22, 2018 • Christian Living 4 - Truth

Scripture References

Genesis 1, 2, 3 • Romans 2:14-15

- 1) A core element of our political disagreement is the definition of "Great."
- 2) Moral relativism is the view that moral judgments are true or false only in relation to some particular culture or historical period.
- 3) 75% of American college professors currently teach that there is no such thing as right and wrong.

Grace Bible Church • Message by Dave Zierenberg
Audio and notes available at www.gbcsl.com

- 4) People claim morals and values are relative, but act as if they believe their personal morals and values are really true.
- 5) The favorite phrase of those who want to be free from moral requirements: "You have no right to judge me!"
- 6) From the denial of moral truth, it's a short step to abandoning scientific truth when it gets in the way of the agenda.
- 7) Christianity claims that we all have a sense of right and wrong built into us, and that is the source of morality.
- 8) People have been conditioned through moral relativism to believe that they have no right to tell someone they're wrong about something.
- 9) Chronological snobbery: The assumption that what we believe is automatically superior to what people used to believe.
- 10) The essential element in the story of the blind men and the elephant is that someone who sees the full truth can bring complete understanding.