

August 13, 2018 • Christian Living 7 - Response to Sin

Scripture References

Proverbs 16:28; 25:23 • Romans 1:29 • 2 Corinthians 12:20

Romans 3:23 • Romans 5:20-21 • Mark 2:17

Romans 2:1-4 • Romans 5:8

- 1) Rather than listing all the specific details in the Bible, sometimes God just says, "Don't do that."
- 2) Our response to homosexuality should be no different than the way we respond to other sins: with love and compassion.
- 3) The Bible says we're all broken, and for some people, brokenness shows up as homosexuality.

- 4) Sexual attraction is not a sin. Lust is.
- 5) A suggested prayer: "God, please help me to love those who sin differently than I do."
- 6) Casual sex by heterosexuals is more damaging than gay sex because it has led to over 1.5 billion abortions.
- 7) There are two major themes in God's plan. The first is that we are all sinners. The second is that God forgives sinners.
- 8) God's commandments were designed to reveal our sin, to make us realize that we could not be good on our own.
- 9) As Christ-followers, our job is the same as Christ's, to call those who know they are sinners, and to love them.
- 10) We should love the sinner, but hate the sin.
- 11) It's God's kindness that leads us to change our lives, and it's our kindness that can reach those who may seem far away from the things of God.
