

August 19, 2018 • Christian Living 8 - Alcohol

Scripture References

Psalms 104:10-15 • Deuteronomy 14:24-27 • Luke 7:33-34

1 Corinthians 13 • Galatians 3:21-25 • Colossians 2:16-23

Romans 8:29 • 1 Corinthians 10:23

1) Listening to the opinions of culture can twist our idea of right and wrong, and that includes church culture.

2) Approaches to reading scripture:

Exegesis – to draw or extract meaning out of the text.

Eisegesis – to read meaning into the text.

- 3) The Bible does not forbid alcohol, but it has many warnings about drunkenness.
- 4) The Bible says those who drink to excess are unfit for church leadership.
- 5) In Psalm 104:15, wine is listed as a blessing from God to make people glad.
- 6) Our standing with God is not based on our performance or our righteousness; it is based on Jesus himself, and his righteousness.
- 7) Those who are true disciples will have a desire to please God, and that desire will affect how we live.
- 8) When God is at work within us, changing us, we become people who overflow with love, overflow with peace, and overflow with joy.
