

Marriage Prayer For Men

by: Deborah Ross

Dear God:

Help me to understand that I cannot change my wife. I can only change me!

Help me to have faith knowing that YOU CAN CHANGE MY WIFE.

Lord, help me to be more like you toward my wife, so that your love will convince her of your presence, your power, your kingdom principles, and your authority in our marriage. Help me to love her like Christ loves the church and how He gave His life for it (Ephesians 5:25).

Help me to never be bitter against her (Colossians 3:19).

May she be won unto salvation by my faithfulness in reading, honoring, and understanding your Word and by my example as a Man of God before her eyes. May she grow in Christ to become "ALL" that you have called her to become.

Lord, you ordained families and set them in order according to your wisdom. Empower me to be the head of my household in a godly manner (1 Corinthians 11:3). Teach me to give honor to my wife as the weaker vessel so that we may be heirs together of the grace of life; and so that my prayers would not be hindered (1 Peter 3:7).

I will not forsake the truth, but I will always apply the truth in a loving way so that your glory shines through my convictions.

Help me to love my wife at all times, even when I feel she doesn't deserve my love. Help me to be in tune with my wife's need for security, conversation and romance.

I pray that the blood of Jesus will cover my marriage and cause our family to flourish as an example to the world.

In Jesus Name,
AMEN
