VOLUME 1 ISSUE 2

Meet T.K. Phresh

Born Zhberian J. Pugh, on November 21, 1987, T.K. Phresh has emerged as an up and coming premier artist of today! A born native of Bronx, New York, Phresh has spent most of his life in the south, moving to Georgia (Thomasville) when he was age 8. This strong mix in cultures and surroundings has only paid off for the artist, by making him more diverse in his music. "I feel I am the best of both worlds in one," The artist stated in a recent interview. Now a resident of Tampa, Fl. Phresh is rapidly making a name for himself on the rap scene. A strong mixture of Swag, character and charisma makes Phresh a stand out artist, his raspy, grungy delivery combined with his witty punch lines and clever metaphors keep his listeners highly entertained and greatly impressed! "As an artist I feel we sometimes settle for mediocre music. At that time once we settle we are asking our audience to settle, and that is not right. I am not the best right now, but I am only working to get better in every aspect so I can become one of the best!" T.K. Phresh is definitely an artist that is on a steady rise to the top and stopping is nowhere in his sights at this time!
