To our church family and our community…

As of July 5th, we have been open for in-person Sunday worship.

We will essentially follow the guidelines spelled out in the letter (or email) sent out from the Leadership Team a few weeks ago. Masks and social distancing will be required.

Anyone sick or in a high-risk category should not attend.

We ask that anyone attending the Worship Service please contact Linda at the church office by email or phone by noon on Friday prior to the Sunday you plan to attend.

We will continue to live stream our Sunday service. There will be no Sunday school or nursery at this time. We plan to add a Sunday evening “Vesper” service at the Pavilion once each month if we are able. (Masks will be optional.) Please watch for details.

From our ICCOB Leadership Team: Our Online Giving is up and running! Information is also available on our website, iccob.org or iccob.org/Giving, including a link to a tutorial, if needed.

If you have any questions or need technical assistance, please don’t hesitate contact LTT members Larry May, Caris Williams, Bob Lane, Dennis Duett, or Chris McBreen.

Please note: Online Giving is not replacing other means of giving, such as mailing a check. It simply adds another safe and convenient giving option for those who prefer it.

Thank you to everyone that has helped during my recovery time. The meals were delicious, cards were uplifting, prayers were encouraging, and the lending of equipment made movement possible. I feel truly blessed by our church family and I am deeply grateful.

~Sincerely, Janette Steward

We offer a “live” GrowKIDS Story each Sunday at 9:30 am on Facebook LIVE. We are also offering a KIDS video chat, led by Donna Parcell and/or Jane Spigel, each Thursday at 6:00 pm.

Two Sunday School classes are meeting Sunday mornings by Zoom, meeting at the same time but in different Zoom rooms:

In The Color of Compromise (a 12-part video series), Jemar Tisby provides a unique survey of American Christianity's racial past, revealing specific ways people of faith have actually worked against racial justice. By better understanding the past, we can better promote racial justice in the present and future.

In an eight-session series on Philippians, Jo Saxton encourages us to follow Jesus no matter what life throws at us. Through Paul's words and example, learn how joy and sacrifice can go hand-in-hand.

If you have questions, email Larry May, Pam Bateman or contact the church at info@iccob.org.

Please be in prayer for all of our 54 VBS students and their families this week as they watch videos online that lead them in daily Bible lessons, crafts, recreation, music, and more. The theme is “Rocky Railway: Through all of life’s challenges, Jesus’ power pulls us through!”

Our Peace and Social Justice Team has its own Facebook page at https://www.facebook.com/PSJ.at.iccob/.

Peace and Social Justice (PSJ) Prayer Gathering – You are invited to join us in-person at the ICCOB peace pole this evening (Sunday, July 26th) on the 4th Sunday each month at 7:00 p.m.
NEXT SUNDAY – EVENING VESPERS! We will gather at the Pavilion from 7-8:00 pm for an informal time of Scripture, song, and devotional thoughts. Masks are still generally encouraged but not required for this event. Bring your own lawn chairs and sit wherever you feel comfortable and safe.

FOOD PANTRY

The Witness Team is offering opportunities to assist the Hatfield COB Food Pantry.

1. There is a need for volunteers to help with the food distribution on the first and third Tuesdays of every month from 10:00 A.M. – 1:30 P.M. (Masks required and social distancing of at least 6 feet apart from other volunteers and clients, plus sanitizing of food carts and tables, etc.). If you are interested and able to serve, please contact Larry May for more details.

2. There is also a need for financial donations to assist with the purchase of meat to be distributed. You can donate by designating “Hatfield Food Pantry” on your offering envelope or selecting Hatfield Food Pantry as the fund if you give through On-line Giving on the Church Website or through the Ministry One Mobile APP.

Note: Facebook Live events are on our ICCOB Facebook page, which can be accessed on through this link: www.facebook.com/indiancreekcob/live/

If you have questions about or need help connecting with Zoom events, please contact Larry May or Bob Lane or email us at info@iccob.org.
