

2018 ORGANIZATIONAL CHART

As of January 21, 2018

The Administrative Staff are responsible for the day to day administrative functions of the Church's front office, as well as general support to each ministry.

The Associate Pastors and Ministers assist the Pastor in various leadership roles, which include leading ministries, teaching, and New Members' classes. They also serve as worship leaders and preachers when required.

The Stewards Ministry direct the legal and financial affairs of the Church. They maintain responsibility for ensuring the church operates in a safe, secure and compliant manner, as well as, handling the accounting of tithes and offerings, property purchases and upkeep, and managing ministry budgets.

The Elders Council is made up of administrative and pastoral representatives from the active membership. They are responsible for the spiritual, financial, physical and overall welfare of the Church and its ministries.

The Deacons Ministry comprises both men and women who are ordained to serve by caring for the physical needs of the congregation so the Pastor can concentrate on the spiritual. They also give oversight to the Benevolence Ministry.

The Ministry Shepherds are responsible for the supervision of ministry leaders and are accountable for the continued effectiveness of church ministries.
