As a prospective employer, we must ask any applicant for a driving position with our company whether he/she has tested positive, or refused to test, on any pre-employment drug or alcohol test administered by an employer to which the applicant applied for, but did not obtain, "safety sensitive transportation work" (driving a commercial motor vehicle) during the past three years.

Yes, I have tested positive for drugs/alcohol, or refused to take a pre-employment drug/alcohol test in the three years preceding the date of this application.

No, I have not tested positive for drugs/alcohol, or refused to take a pre-employment drug/alcohol test in the three years preceding the date of this application.

DOT regulations prohibit our utilizing you to perform a "safety-sensitive function" (driving a commercial motor vehicle) if you had a had a positive test, or refusal to test, until and unless you provide documents showing successful completion of the return-to-duty process in accordance with DOT regulations.
