Lives Changed

Praise the Lord,

What an amazing 2021 Camp meeting! The move of God was powerful the entire week. All day sessions were impactful in a marked way. The passion for God's will to be done was evident on all of the leaders of each section as well as those speaking.

As God moved in each service Thursday was a very special night. As God began to move the altar began to fill with hungry hearts seeking the infilling of the Holy Ghost. As one would receive that precious gift there would be an explosion of rejoicing. As lives were being changed, as one after another were being filled with the Comforter the baptismal began to be filled. When the night was over six had been baptized and twelve received the Holy Ghost! What an incredible outpouring of God's Spirit.

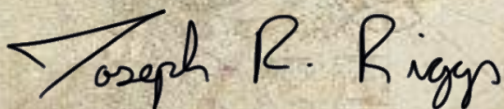

Friday night's service saw a victory march organized by the children that had us hand in hand encompassing the sanctuary. When the altar service took place, those spirit filled explosions started up once again as two more were baptized and two received the Holy Ghost, phenomenal!

As camp came to a close with eight baptized and fourteen receiving the Holy Ghost my mind went to how there had been some trepidation and questioning about if we should even have camp. I think the Lord answered those questions with an emphatic YES! Satan would have loved if camp had been cancelled again this year and we all would not have received what God had for us but thank God we did!

*Hebrews 10:24 And let us consider one another to provoke unto love and to good works:
25 Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is ; but exhorting one another : and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching.*

Let us come together and provoke one another in love to good works. Restoration Conference is coming up August 27th and 28th. You, your family, your neighbors, your co-workers, your youth group, your church etc... can't afford to miss. God is coming soon, and His spirit is being poured out. If those that were baptized and filled with the Holy Ghost had missed camp, they may have missed it all.

Yours in Christ,

'Compel Them' 2021

Camp & Convention

THE THINGS MY MOTHER, "ROSIE IRENE EMBRY" TAUGHT ME.

- God will only tell you good things to do in church. Don't be afraid to step out to pray for someone, openly worship God with raised hands in praises unto him.
- Never be afraid to go up front to pray for someone or yourself.
- When you are praying with someone you can watch and see if they are in need of something while they're praying such as
 - Try to make the person you're praying with as comfortable as possible,
 - so, they will continue to pray.
 - Kleenex, – remove their glasses – if you see they are getting warm, you can fan them or have someone else to fan them.
 - If you see the person is trying to recline help them to the floor.
 - When it is a lady, quickly find a covering for her legs, such as a jacket, a scarf, blanket, etc. This will make her feel more comfortable.
- You can be an example to others by the way you pray and worship. Be yourself. Pay attention to what is being said from the pulpit. Don't worry about what others are doing. You need the word of God planted in your heart. There will be a time in your life when you need these Bible messages to help strengthen you. Remember the stories in the Bible are for our encouragement. If God could work miracles for them, he can do the same for us. Remember, God never changes.
- With Jesus in your life, you will never walk alone. He will be there to supply your needs.
- One of the greatest blessings is when you obey the word of God. You'll find you can never out-give God. When you give tithes, you get abundantly blessed. When you need milk, you'll find money in the outside doghouse. There will be a $20 bill laying at the department store doorway, with no one else around. There will be an unexpected $900 check in the mail from a credit card company, who claim you paid too much interest in the past. Try giving to God. It works every time. You will receive more than a monetary blessing when you give to God. He will give you health, protect you from danger and give you strength for this life. There are other ways to give to the Lord beside monetarily. You may honor him with your time spent in prayer with praise and worship, witnessing to others and helping them. Always faithful with your attendance and working in the church.
- Always show love and kindness to other people so they may see God working in your life.
- The ladies should always look at themselves in a mirror before they leave home. This way, they will see if their clothing is of a modest, Godly nature. They should also be comfortable to worship and pray for others. As you dress, the Holy Ghost will guide you in this matter.
- Your joy, happiness and peace come from God. We can never praise Jesus enough for our salvation.

THE THINGS MY MOTHER, "ROSIE IRENE EMBRY" TAUGHT ME.

"Some things about my mother." She loved to sing hymns and church songs at home or while working in the garden. Momma was not only a loving and giving person to our family, as described in The Book of Proverbs, but extended this to the house of God. She worked tirelessly in helping in any area needed. For over 30 years, she taught primary and junior Sunday School classes, headed up home mission works, oversaw bake sales rummage sales, candy making and other projects to help raise funds for churches. Whatever was needed from choir robes to song books, carpeting, or a new roof. If anyone in the church community had a need, Momma always found a way to get the job done. She knew how we could all get together and raise the funds.

She taught us by example to be good wives, good mothers and to live a clean and holy life. If I could use a scripture from the Bible to best describe Momma it would be Proverbs 31:10—31 and Titus 2:3—5.

The last day that she lived, from 8 AM to 11 PM she testified and witnessed to more than 50 people about living for God. This was from her hospital bed and several phone calls to people as far away as Hawaii.

The bystanders of the world may look at her life and not see a great deal of accomplishment, but in the kingdom of God, only eternity will be able to tell all the good that was done because of the life she lived.

"Souls, Souls, Souls!"

Apostolic Pentecostal Church-Greenfield, IN

Pastor Joseph R. Riggs

It is truly wonderful to share in the good news of Christ. As our world is filled with a hopeless sense of direction, we are thankful for God's leading hand in these last days. It is hard to believe that 2021 is halfway over. It seemed like yesterday that we gathered to pray the New Year in. Now, we are planning for Fall and making plans for the Winter holiday season.

Apostolic Pentecostal Church is blessed to share in the testimonies of so many who have been baptized in Jesus Name and filled with the precious gift of the Holy Ghost.

Sis. Carlie Masters was baptized and filled with the Holy earlier in the quarter. While Sis. Abigail Amburgey, Bro Aiden Amburgey, Bro. Austin Amburgy, Sis. Leah Amburgey and Bro. Jace McIlwain all were baptized and filled with the Holy Ghost at Church Camp. Bro. Luke Amburgey also received the Holy Ghost while at Camp.

The theme of Camp this year was "Compel Them." As the Bible states in Luke 14:23

"And the lord said unto the servant, Go out into the highway and hedges, and compel them to come in, that my house may be filled.

In theses last days it is vital that we reach the lost that we "compel them to come in". Our beloved Sis. Laura Honeycutt shouts it all the time "Souls, Souls, Soul!". How true it is to see souls saved to the kingdom of God.

We are so thankful for those who have been baptized and filled with the Holy Ghost. We are also thankful for the many opportunities this past quarter to gather for Easter, Mother's Day, Father's Day as well as our Friends and Family Day.

In these last days the world is looking for something to fill the void in their life. The pleasures of sin is for a season, but it will cost you your soul for all eternity. We are thankful for a merciful God. We hope to see you in Greenfield for Restoration Conference August 27th & 28th. Until we see each other again whether in the natural or in glory, may God keep you in the hollow of His hand. God bless!

Wow!!!! There is so much to be thankful for. As I reflect on ‘Compel Them’ Camp 2021 I cannot help but rejoice with the many lives who were changed by the mighty hand of the Lord. The captured photos this year were filled with overwhelming smiles and great joy. It was hard to not pick several photos to use for this article, but I felt this photo touch my heart in several ways.

Sis. April Foutz and I are blessed to have Bro. Jace McIlwain in our Sunday School class. The day before we traveled to Camp during Sunday School we talked about the Holy Ghost and being baptized in Jesus Name. How appropriate of what would happen that we studied Acts 2:38 that day. Sis. April and I were able to testify of our experience in being baptized in Jesus Name and how both of us received the Holy Ghost. I recall Bro. Jace asking us how old we were when we received the Holy Ghost. I told him that I was 10 and Bro. Jace was quick to ask, “I’m 7, can I get the Holy Ghost?” In unison Sis. April and I proclaimed “Yes! You can.” How sweet it was and still is to rejoice that Bro. Jace received the Holy Ghost and was baptized in Jesus Name at Camp.

I am thankful that the Pentecostal experience is real, and the Apostolic Doctrine stands true. The Lord’s soon return is quickly approaching. May we always be about the Lord’s business and continue to share the good news of the Lord to the world to see souls saved.

Ashley McCullough Scholarship Recipient

Dear Generous Donor,

First off, my name is Brandon Bowman. I am currently a junior at Indiana Bible College. Second, thank you for your willing donation and investment in the students at Indiana Bible College including myself. Blessings are nothing to take lightly, especially financial blessings for a college student, so you thank you very much. You have my deepest gratitude as a recipient of the Ashley McCullough Memorial Scholarship.

To give a little context of who you have invested into. I am a first-generation Apostolic Pentecostal who has a heart for missions. I am blessed to have the ability to share this burden to help people, and desire to serve God by serving others with my newly wedded wife. This scholarship has tremendously cut down our school bill by more than half as we continue to finish our degrees and pursue what God intends for us. Thank you once again.

Sincerely

Brandon M. Bowman

Ashley McCullough Scholarship Recipient

Dear Generous Donor,

My name is Elise Julien, the recipient of the Ashley McCullough Memorial Scholarship for the 2020-2021 school year. Thank you so much for your generosity and for allowing me to be the recipient of this scholarship! It is a beautiful thing to honor Ashley by providing for others in their endeavor to follow the will of God, and it means a lot to me to be counted worthy to receive this blessing.

I am going into my senior year at IBC, and I'm very excited! I'm majoring in Missiology to prepare for whatever work God has for me in the future, and I'm so thankful for my time at IBC. I look forward to what my senior year holds and am ready to step beyond the four walls of this amazing college. Just so you know a little bit about me: I am 21 years old, and I was born and raised in Indianapolis. I love to sing and play piano, and I love learning songs in a new language!

Currently, I am in Sao Paulo, Brazil as a short-term missionary with the AIM program for the UPCI. I will be here until August 10! It's been such an amazing experience so far, and I believe with my whole heart that God has great plans for Brazil. I feel a strong burden and call here, so I believe that at some point once I graduate, I will come back. If God allows, I would live here! For right now, I plan to help my church for a year after I graduate and save money to return to Brazil and help here in the church. I am open to where God wants me to go and whatever He wants me to do.

God bless you!

Elise Julien
