First Quarter 2021

Compel Them

Praise the Lord,

2020 was a very different year and as disappointing as it was to cancel camp on the campgrounds our Camp Revival was outstanding. We were blessed with the anointing of God in word and song as the spirit of revival swept over us.

Now that it is 2021, we are planning our 10th camp on the Frankfort Ministries campground. We are looking forward to having the Marshall's with us all week. Sis. Marshall will be bringing forth the word each night. This sister is an on-fire saint of God with an amazing testimony. Bro. Marshall, who is a leader in the Apostolic movement in outreach, will be teaching the brothers and sisters a four-day outreach seminar each morning starting at 9:30am.

There will be something for all ages. Children Having Church will be each day starting at 9:00am. Each day all kids that are 4 and under will join Sis. Miles and take a trip on the "One Way Express." While in Bro. and Sis. Smith's class the kids will set out on a "Mission to Mars." The children have a great time learning in a very interactive atmosphere about Jesus. The 9:30 am Youth Services will be power packed and charged with the Holy Ghost. The Youth speaker for this year's camp is Bro. Kendal Weeks. Many have been saved and stirred to higher heights in the Lord while attending camp.

We will once again have amazing food in the cafeteria as well as in the canteen. We have the best camp food around! We can not forget about our Minister's Luncheon on Friday. This lunch is open to minister's and their spouses.

This year's theme is "Compel Them" We have been instructed to win souls at all costs. Looking at the times, it is imperative that souls are plucked out of the fire.

Luke 14:23

And the lord said unto the servant, Go out into the highways and hedges, and compel them to come in, that my house may be filled.

It is more important this year than ever to preregister by May 1, 2021. We must have a good idea of who is planning to attend to make sure we have the campers to make camp a reality.

Camp will begin Monday, June 28th, and end Friday, July 2nd. However, we must "Compel Them" every day and everywhere. See you at Camp 2021!

Romans 8:35-39 tells us

³⁵ Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?

³⁶ As it is written, For thy sake we are killed all the day long; we are accounted as sheep for the slaughter.

³⁷ Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us.

³⁸ For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come,

³⁹ Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Under the law there was a division between God and man. A separation that only a select few were able to cross the great spans. Once a year only 1 man, the high priest, was allowed access into the holiest of holies. Here, on the day of Atonement, he would sprinkle the blood of the sacrificial lamb upon the mercy seat to roll forward the sins of the people ahead for one more year. Still fear may linger upon the heart and mind of the high priest, for if he, himself, was counted unworthy to enter in, the ultimate price of his life was to be required by the hand of God. This was the custom, this was the practice, this was the law.

Since the fall of man, God had a plan. A spotless sacrifice was to be manifested in the flesh, fully God and fully man. through a series of false accusations, rejection, pain, hurt, inhumane cruelty, mockery of trials, and condemnation, the final and perfect sacrifice was to be made.

But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed. (Isaiah 53:5)

The plowers plowed upon my back: they made long their furrows. (Psalms 129:3)

The spotless lamb hung between two common thieves, still enduring insult and injury, even by one who hung beside him.

He himself crying out "Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani? That is to say, "My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me"? Then a plea, Father, forgive them for they know not what they do.

Then setting his eyes steadfast and mustering enough strength to proclaim with every ounce of compassion and unwavering love he had within him..."It ... Is ... FINISHED".

Only those around him that day did not understand what was exactly finished. They thought it was his death and giving up of the ghost. What they did not know is that this was just the beginning. The beginning of something that reached far beyond the walls that any mortal could conceive. Beyond any box that man would try to conceal the power of the Almighty, one and only true God in. Far beyond this earthly realm, extending into the Heaves to come.

He was torn, and wounded, now by the power that was undeniably that of the one true God who now hung before them in the form of the man Jesus Christ. Even those who were not children of the promise recognized who this was. He it was that declared:

1 Corinthians 15:55-57

⁵⁵ O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory?

⁵⁶ The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law.

⁵⁷ But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

Continued

The law full of accusation was fulfilled. Where the everyday man like you and I was not allowed to ever behold, now had nothing to hinder him from running full ahead. Reckless and without abandon, we were granted access to the presence of God, to the very seat of mercy, that had no measurement of how deep it would run. Yet that tabernacle was made with human hand by God's direction. This end was just the beginning...

Beyond the 4 walls and beyond the veil we now are in covenant that calls us to:

Hebrews 4:16

Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need.

For I am persuaded that life cannot separate me. Come running.
Death shall not separate me. Come running.
Angels will not stop me. Come Running.
No principality shall deny our access. Come running.
No power has the power to stop us. Come running.
No sickness nor disease can be victorious. Come running.
Height nor depth is too great. Come running.
Nothing in our past can prevent us. Come running.
The present will not prevail. Come running.
Things to come are subject under the powerful name of Jesus. Come running.
Run to his Mercy, and then go beyond to His throne room Boldly.

We who have been torn from family, life as we know it, our normality, have been rescued and made more than conquerors through Christ Jesus our Lord. He was torn for us, and the separating veil was torn for us. For this promise is unto you and to your children, and them that are afar off. He is calling to all. Through His blood and the Holy Ghose we are no longer torn, but rather victoriously made whole.

Come boldly.

Run

Don't walk.

Don't hesitate.

Don't draw back.

Let God arise and His enemies be scattered.

Be revived.

Be transformed.

Be renewed.

Be free.

Now

Right now

According to this perfect will, Like the leapers, why sit we here until we die.

The veil is torn, the doors swing wide. See His glory as you run inside. His Throne rooms Before him

A Helping Hand

*Drakesboro Holiness Church
Drakesboro, Kentucky*

Pastor Mitchell Sublett

Sis. Sublett celebrated her birthday in February

The suitcase has returned! We are taking donations to help cover the cost of feeding the kids at church camp for lunch.

We are helping fill the baby bottles for Pathway of Hope. They are a pregnancy care center in Greenville, KY

The Ashley McCullough Scholarship

The UAC of JC has established the Ashley McCullough Scholarship, and has partnered with Indiana Bible College to help a student in the Missiology program further their education. Sis. Ashley's desire was to go on a mission field and reach the lost, and through this scholarship we are helping her vision become a continuous reality.

If God moves your heart to donate to this scholarship, you can do so by mailing your contribution to

Never Changing

Apostolic Pentecostal Church-Greenfield

Pastor Joseph R. Riggs

The Word of the Lord reminds us in Hebrews 13:8 “Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and to day, and for ever.” Apostolic Pentecostal Church is thankful that no matter the circumstances our Lord and Savior remains sovereign overall.

The first quarter of the year has been filled with events that we thank the Lord for daily. In January we celebrated Apostolic Pentecostal Church’s 56th Church Anniversary and Pastor Joseph R. and First Lady Kimberly S. Riggs 11th Pastoral Anniversary. We are truly blessed to have had the opportunity to celebrate with family and friends as the ministry continues at 5th and Cherry.

During the month of March APCGI was blessed to host the UAC of JC National Youth Conference. We are thankful to have had Bro. Raymond Dupree from Nashville, Indiana as well as Pastor and Sis. Riggs and Bro. Josh and Sis. Chelsey Rea who all ministered in a mighty way. Thank you to everyone who join us in worship and fellowship. Thank you to Bishop Travis Jones and the Youth department for an amazing “Torn” National Youth Conference.

The Lord’s return is soon coming. We must continue to tell of the hope that is beyond this world. As our beloved Sis. Laura Honeycutt proclaims it’s about “SOULS!, SOULS! SOULS!’. Stay connected with the APCGI family. Visit us at apcgi.org as well as on social media. Until we meet again, God bless.

LIVES CHANGED

Safe Harbor Apostolic Lighthouse

Pastor-Bishop Rick Monroe

Praise the Lord,

Jesus said to his disciples.

Mark 16:15-16

And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature.

16. He that believeth and is baptized shall be save: but he that believeth not shall be damned

We very much enjoyed the spring revival at Safe Harbor Apostolic Lighthouse. We were blessed to have two receive the Holy Ghost and one was baptized.

Luke 15:10

Likewise, I say unto you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner that repenteth.

God bless,

Rev. Eric Gray
