Athlete's Oath

“Let me win. But if I cannot win, let me be brave in the attempt”.

The Special Olympics Athlete's Oath was first introduced on July 20, 1968 by our founder, Eunice Kennedy Shriver at the inaugural Special Olympics International Games held in Chicago.

Special Olympics Florida began as an accredited program in 1972. Our athletes hold this oath near their hearts as they participate in competitions.

-- Eunice Kennedy Shriver
