

Knights of Columbus
South Carolina State Council

Blessed Michael McGivney Award

At the 139th Supreme Convention, a resolution was passed entitled Celebrating the Beatification of Blessed Michael McGivney. This resolution concluded with the following:

FURTHER RESOLVED, that a new award be established and known as the Blessed Michael McGivney Medal, to be accorded annually to a Knights of Columbus chaplain whose priestly zeal and exemplary service are in the finest traditions of our Founder, and that, beginning next year, the final candidates for this prestigious international award will be selected from among priests honored by their jurisdictions with a new State Blessed Michael McGivney Award in the same manner as other award categories.

The South Carolina State Council will present the Blessed Michael McGivney Award at the State Convention to the most qualified nominated chaplain. The winner, with recommendation from the Bishop (required) will be submitted to the Supreme Council to be considered for the Blessed Michael McGivney Medal awarded at the Supreme Convention.
