What to Expect During Your Visit

1. Dedicated Visitor Parking

When you enter our parking lot, look for designated guest parking spaces reserved just for you to ensure easy access to the main entrance.

2. Warm Welcome Center

As you enter, our greeters will welcome you and provide a bulletin containing the morning's order of service and weekly announcements. Stop by the Welcome Center table for reading materials and information about our church.

3. Family-Inclusive Worship

We believe in worshipping together as a church family! Children stay with their parents during the worship service, and we warmly welcome families with children of all ages in our sanctuary.

4. Blended Worship & Preaching

Our worship styles include traditional hymns, contemporary worship songs, and instrumental arrangements led by various worship teams. Services include open times of prayer, praises, and biblical preaching by our pastors and elders.
