Sowing, Serving, Reaping for Christ Around the World

"So let us know; let us press on to know the Lord. His going forth is as certain as the dawn; And He will come to us like the rain, like the spring rain watering the earth."

Hosea 6:3. NASV

Farmers here in southern Wisconsin are preparing and waiting for the arrival of spring!! We have been teased a couple times so far, but still, we wait!

The FCFI has been busy through these winter months preparing for the future as well. The Gospel message has been shared at many shows throughout the south and is moving northward as volunteers take up the call.

New Executive Director

We are excited to welcome a new Executive Director to lead us in the work of the FCFI. After much prayer and searching the board has extended the call to Dan Janzen and his wife Teresa to replace Ex Director Dennis Schlagel, who is retiring after 30+ years with the Fellowship. Thank you, Dennis and Janet, for giving your all.

Dan Janzen and his family has been part of the fellowship from his early years growing up on the family farm in Dayton, Oregon. Dan has been involved in Christian ministry work his whole life with the most recent call serving in South Sudan for several years developing support for a Christian worldview teaching coupled with agricultural/entrepreneurship training. He has also worked as an Ag and Natural Resource Agent for Michigan State University.

Dan has been busy traveling and visiting FCFI people, learning about different areas of the Fellowship, and you will also have a great opportunity to meet him and Teresa at our 31st Annual Conference on July 23- 26 in Indiana. They will be sharing how God has led them and their vision for FCFI's future. I hope to see you there for a great time of encouragement and fellowship.

Romania Trip

I just returned from a mission trip to Romania and I am very encouraged with the ministry work on going there. While there I was able to meet with our partner Tudor, he is a Ukrainian citizen who is instrumental in helping us get supplies to pastors and their churches inside the war zone in Ukraine. Pastor Alex and his wife Rodi, who is our Romanian connection, are going to be with us at the FCFI conference in July with updates of those efforts. We are still supporting a couple of Ukrainian refugee families at our camp ministry facilities. A couple families we had been housing, were able to return to Ukraine recently. They traveled the round-about way to return to their home towns through Russia from the north! The immediate bombings moved away from their area, and they wanted to go back home. This makes no sense in our minds but is a reality in this war time, I guess. Even though we here in the US are not as tuned in as we once were, the war is still the overriding and consuming issue there and is very disrupting and critical to the Ukrainian people and those in the surrounding countries.

I was able to meet with another large group of Ukrainian refugees who are meeting as a church family in the Transylvania area. One young girl of 11, (Alexandrea) reminded me so much of one of my granddaughters, in looks and personality. I learned through talking to her that she would love to take piano lessons but didn't have a piano to make that happen. After checking with her parents, I was able to get her a keyboard and paid for several months of lessons to be given. I will keep in touch and hopefully she will continue to learn and bless others with her efforts, as does my granddaughter. Please pray!

While in Romania we shared with several churches and did construction work on the Chapel building at camp to prepare it for the summer youth camps that are planned. The camp ministry is changing hearts and lives in young people who are challenged and encouraged with the saving knowledge of Jesus Christ.

So please save the conference dates for a great time of fellowship and encouragement and stay safe through the spring season.

May God Bless you, Steve

From the Executive Director: Mobilizing Strategic Partnerships

The commitment and impact of Fellowship of Christian Farmers International (FCFI) in disaster relief and evangelism over the past three decades are truly remarkable. I extend my heartfelt gratitude to each person who has contributed, especially acknowledging the dedication of Dennis Schlagel, now transitioning to Executive Director Emeritus. As I transition into the role of Executive Director, I am deeply committed to fostering collaborative efforts and leveraging our collective strengths.

Having served as a missionary in South Sudan for eight years, my passion lies in facilitating connections among individuals sharing aligned visions. My approach, rooted in a "developer" personality style, seeks to empower others to fulfill their God-given ministry callings. I am eager to continue FCFI's existing programs while exploring new avenues for growth and impact.

Following are some exciting initiatives that await your involvement:

*Dan Janzen, FCFI
Executive Director and his wife Teresa*

- 1. Empowering FFAers for Urban Missions - We are exploring the possibility of providing mission opportunities for Future Farmers of America (FFA) members among Chicago's inner-city youth during summers. This initiative aims to integrate evangelism, discipleship, and urban agriculture by establishing market gardens managed by inner-city youth. Graduates will have avenues for further agricultural pursuits, including farming on the outskirts of Chicago or participating in internships nationwide.
- 2. Organize FFAers in "Maximize the Blessing" Competitions - These address the challenges posed by low commodity prices. Together, we can assess opportunities to cooperatively produce, process, and market specialty crops.
- 3. Farmer Fellowship Zoom Meetings - Look out for our upcoming ¼ page ad in the May issue of Progressive Farmer magazine. We invite farmers to join monthly Zoom meetings focusing on relevant topics such as stress management and exploring income possibilities through specialty crops. These meetings offer a unique opportunity to connect and pray with fellow farmers across the US and potentially beyond. We are looking for people to volunteer as Zoom Prayer Room Leaders. Scan the QR code to sign up.
- 4. Global Expansion of FCFI - We are excited to announce the launch of FCFI groups in other countries. Volunteers, particularly those with farming backgrounds, can promote spiritual growth and foster agribusiness development. We aim to inspire communities to steward their resources with excellence, driven by the Great Commission.
-  5. Disciple Making Movement Training - For those interested in participating in Disciple Making Movement (DMM), Tim Ferree of Discipleship Global offers training sessions on Saturday mornings. Contact Tim at tlferree@icloud.com. As emphasized in 2 Timothy 2:2, we are called to entrust what we have learned to reliable individuals who will, in turn, teach others.
- 6. Discipleship Course - We need volunteers to promote a discipleship program that is tailored for farmers in the US and overseas.

Steve Brown

A Great Hero of the Faith within FCFI, remembering Steve Brown

In every community, there are those whose dedication and faithfulness leave an indelible mark on the lives of others. Steve Brown, an integral part of the Fellowship of Christian Farmers International (FCFI) team under area leader Bill Brown (no relation) in New York, was one such individual. His recent passing has left a void felt deeply by FCFI and all who knew him.

Born on June 14, 1957, in Utica, New York, Steve's journey was defined by service, faith, and a profound commitment to his Christian beliefs. After graduating from Holland Patent Central School, he answered the call to serve his country in the U.S. Navy from 1977 to 1980 and in the Navy Reserves following. His marriage to Christyne Hough on June 6, 1992, marked the beginning of a partnership grounded in shared values and a commitment to spreading the gospel message. Together, they embarked on a journey of ministry, traveling and sharing their faith at events through their involvement with FCFI.

He was ordained in 2022 and whether through his involvement in Redeeming Love Fellowship Church or his dedicated service to FCFI, Steve's legacy is one of faith, compassion, and unwavering commitment to the Gospel.

Steve and Christyne Brown serving at an FCFI booth.

As we reflect on Steve's remarkable life and the legacy he leaves behind, let us pray for others to volunteer to fill the big void at FCFI.

He is now in Glory with Christ and lives on in the enduring impact he had on the lives of those he touched.

Please pray for Christyne and her family as they navigate life without Steve.

"I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith."

Lexington, IL Chapter Pres. Payton Wiltz and his Grandpa Mark Freed hauled two John Deere Gators with trailers and dump trailers to rural Sullivan the Thursday before Easter Sunday. Good Friday, over 100 students, including the track teams picked up trash on farm fields. Watch the Facebook post (scan the QR code above) on the Fellowship of Christian Farmers FB page where Payton and Mark describe the impact of FFA members helping farm families who have lost so much.

Top right: Members of the of the Indian Lake High School FFA Chapter used two Kubota side by sides to pick up tornado trash with a commercial dumpster. The FFA Chapter covered 700 acres. FCFI Area Director, Bill Nichols, coordinated the effort with the help of local farmers Jim Wish and son, Joel Wish. FCFI's Kubota and trailer was used by the FFA Chapter to beachcomb tornado trash around Indian Lake. Had the tornado hit the Lakeview community on Easter weekend, many people would have been killed.
